PREFACE

This book is an attempt to document the Woodworth Family of America to date, taking into consideration all past efforts by many earlier family genealogists and present-day family members who have devoted enumerable hours adding to the Woodworth history. No one individual can be credited for all of the history of the Woodworth Family given in the pages that follow. Thankfully, there were genealogists down through the years who had the interest, the foresight, and the passionate desire to record the many Woodworth generations from the time of Walter Woodworth.

As with any genealogy where so many vital statistics are used and where much of the data comes from family sources themselves, errors will occur. Some errors are evident in the earlier Woodworth publications. These I have tried to address in this volume. Other discrepancies, no doubt, are still to be uncovered. However, let us not condemn the original authors nor the present ones. They have all tried to present, as correctly as possible within their own limits, the material available to them at the time.

Higher standards of accuracy in genealogy today through research, interpretation and computerization are evident; however, no matter how much care is given in compiling genealogical material, some errors will later be found, based on new evidence. This is expected.

I would like to encourage readers to join with me toward enhancing the true Woodworth genealogy in a changing world of more sophisticated genealogical standards. This volume is a base from which to start. I expect and accept criticism and would be delighted to receive documented information from readers to support any changes they might suggest.

It is hoped through circulation of this book, even more material will come to light to further enhance this genealogy; especially in finding the wife, parents and English heritage of Walter Woodworth of 1630.

PREFACE

Compiling Woodworth material began around 1874 with William Atwater 7 Woodworth, son of Walter 6 and Mary (Nathan 5, Elijah 4, David 3, Isaac 2, Walter 1). He was an attorney at White Plains, New York. His first and only book was published in 1898 on the Woodworth family. He continued to collect Woodworth records until his death.

Ernest Edward Woodworth apparently began compiling his Woodworth material around 1898, about the time William Atwater Woodworth published his works. Ernest died in 1940.

In the meantime, Jay Backus 8 Woodworth, son of Allen 7 and Amanda (Israel 6, Oliver 5, William 4, Daniel 3, Isaac 2, Walter 1) started his outstanding collection as early as 1910 and continued until his death in 1929.

Philip Bell 9 Woodworth, son of Thomas 8 and Mary (Stephen 7, Caleb 6,5, Gershom 4, Caleb 3, Benjamin 2, Walter 1), a Chicago lawyer, started compiling Woodworth data early in the 20th century. He worked closely with Jay Backus and Ernest Edward. The three were on the verge of publishing a genealogy, but it never materialized. Philip Bell died in 1937.

Nothing further transpired until 1941 when James R. Pierce of Pasadena, Calif., became interested in his own Woodworth line descending on the maternal side from the Reverend Timothy 6 Woodworth, son of William 5 and Sarah (Jedediah 4, Joseph 3,2, Walter 1), and in trying to solve it, he started collecting data in 1941 and 1942 to develop his own Woodworth collection. He learned that Jay Backus Woodworth's collection was stored in the vaults of the New England Historical Society in Boston. James Pierce managed to work on it for several days there in 1945/6. He tried in vain to obtain Ernest Edward Woodworth's collection. In 1957, he contacted Horace Jay Woodworth, son of Ernest, who had the manuscript. An agreement was reached to purchase the manuscript at that time.

PREFACE

If James Pierce had had access to Ernest Edward Woodworth's material, hundreds of hours of work might have been saved due to the duplication of efforts. James Pierce worked to correct some of the errors made in the basic genealogical scheme of the family, and he catalogued the family.

James Pierce conducted a search in England and felt that Walter Woodworth may have been a brother to, or closely related to, Henry Woodworth, born Much-Woolton Township in the parish of Childwell in the hundred of West Derby in Lancashire 22 May 1607, son of Thomas and Elizabeth (Tysen) Woodworth/Woodward of Dorchester and Northampton, Mass. He believed that Walter was a Woodworth and not a Woodward. None of this has been substantiated, and his material has yet to be found as he died without heirs and there has been no reply to letters to his estate.

Pearl 9 Woodworth Carlton, daughter of Edwin 8 and Helen (Charles 7, Joseph 6, Abner 5, Joseph 4,3,2, Walter 1), during her lifetime researched libraries and elsewhere in both the United States and England. After her death her material was made available to Harry Rice (her cousin's son). Harry L. Rice was born in 1847, son of Mary Charlotte (Woodworth) Rice and grandson of Charles Granderson 9 Woodworth (James 8, Charles 7, Joseph 6, Abner 5, Joseph 4,3,2, Walter 1). He and his wife traveled extensively in the U.S. trying to track down Woodworth descendants. Harry Rice's wife, Anne, published his typescript of the descendants of Walter and his two elder sons, Thomas and Joseph, after Harry died. He also worked on all the lines in conjunction with Maurice Woodworth of Tulsa, Oklahoma.

Maurice E. 9 Woodworth, son of Charles 8 and Carrie (William 7, Samuel 6, Abner 5, Joseph 4,3,2, Walter 1), became involved while also trying to gain possession of Ernest Edward Woodworth's collection, but was finally referred to James Pierce. James Pierce supplied Maurice with copies of his manuscript and all the references he had compiled up to that time. Maurice then began his effort working backwards from the present day Woodworths to connect with the records already documented. Maurice's persistance helped to get complete data of family lines from around 1941 until his death in 1979. Many helped Maurice's efforts including Hassie Lane of Temple, Texas.

In 1963, I, Jeanette Woodworth Behan, daughter of William Chauncey 8 and Jennette (William 8, Augustus 7, Spencer 6, Joshue 5, Eliphalt 4, Ebenezer 3, Benjamin 2, Walter 1) came in contact with Maurice E. Woodworth while trying to become a member of the DAR. Maurice suggested that in order to avoid duplication of efforts that we work together, as the Woodworth documentation had become nearly too vast for one person to handle. I assisted in typing and in contacting "living" Woodworths. This mutually-satisfying correspondence with Maurice continued until his passing. For a few years afterwards, it was difficult to continue working on the Woodworth family as I felt quite inadequate without the support of the person who so kindly guided me for so many years.

Then along came Julian Woodworth of North Adams, Mass., (a descendant of Leonard 6 Woodworth and Elizabeth, William 5, Jedediah 4, Joseph 3,2, Walter 1). He was searching for his roots in New Brunswick, Canada, which opened up a whole new world of Woodworths for me. Through contacts in Nova Scotia and New Brunswick, many additional family members were added to the Woodworth Genealogy.

In latter years G. Alan Royce of Erdenheim, Penn., (a descendant of Gershom Evarts 5 Woodworth Gershom 4, Caleb 3, Benjamin 2, Walter 1) was kind enough to send me Woodworth excerpts from genealogical books and generously gave many valuable opinions on various problems. These references have been invaluable and most of what is listed in the Bibliography is a direct result of G. Alan Royce's research efforts.

Barbara Cruchon (a descendant of Ebenezer 4,3, Benjamin 2, Walter 1), of Seattle, Wash., is credited with supplying much of the background material on Walter Woodworth and his four sons. She is perhaps the most accurate researcher the Woodworth family can boast of to-date. Her research has corrected and/or verified past existing material.

Victor Montes (a descendant of James 8,7, Dudley 6, Amasa 5, Jesse 4, Stephen 3, Isaac 2, Walter 1) has also given of his time willingly to assist myself and others in need of Woodworth material.

In 1984, The Woodworth Family Newsletter edited by myself was published and was circulated to over 200 Woodworth family members throughout the United States and Canada. This was a most enjoyable endeavor and enabled me to reach out and touch many "relatives." It was with great regret I had to end the newsletter.

Help came from many sources. I have only touched the surface in acknowledging all those who have contributed to this genealogy and I apologize if I have inadvertently overlooked someone. Family members who have helped exclusively on their own lines are too numerable to list here, but my heartfelt thanks are extended to them for their own personal contributions.

1. WALTER 1 WOODWORTH, the progenitor of the Woodworth Family in America, was born in England about 1612 and died Scituate, Plymouth Colony, early in 1686; parentage unknown.

He married about 1639/40. No record has been found of his wife's name. She was living in March 1676 when a court case mentions Mehitable Woodworth's parents, but had died by 26 November 1685, when Walter made his Will, naming ten children.

Some have speculated that Walter married Elizabeth Rogers, the daughter of Thomas Rogers of the "Mayflower." Elizabeth Daniel, authoress of Thomas Rogers, Pilgrim and Some of His Descendants, 1980, states, "Whether Thomas Rogers really had a daughter Elizabeth at all is a matter of theory. There are records in Leyden, Holland, that suggest that two daughters lived there with their mother, but there is no absolute proof. Whether one or both of these possible daughters ever came to America, we don't know...."

Walter may have indentured himself for a time in order to pay his passage expenses, as the records do mention Walter as having "come as a servant" to Plymouth Colony. Plymouth Court Records of 2 Jan. 1633/4 order "that whereas by indenture many are bound to give their servants land at the expiration of their terms, it is ordered that they have it at Scituate or some other convenient place, where it may be useful."

There is no record of his presence on any of the many ships which sailed from England to the Colonies in the 17th century. Many early Scituate settlers were from County Kent in England, and it has been thought that Walter may have come from there as well, perhaps as one of Rev. John Lothrop's followers from Edgerton in Kent. Rev. Lothrop, first pastor of the church in Scituate, arrived in Boston, Sept. 1634 on the "Griffin," with some 30 members of his congregation, both from London and Kent. This was six months after Walter is first recorded in Plymouth Colony. Walter does not appear to have been a member of Rev. Lothrop's Church.

One story has Walter Woodworth arriving as a passenger at Nantasket, 30 May 1630 aboard the "Mary and John." A list of probable passengers has been reconstructed from contemporary evidence. None include any Woodworth/Woodward/Woodart.

Walter first appears in the records on a list of taxpayers in Plymouth Colony, made between 2 Jan. 1633/4 when the tax "for publick use" was ordered, and 27 March 1634, when the list was presented to the Court. Walter's name falls near the end of the list, and he is taxed at nine shillings. It is assumed he was still a single man without house or property, but not now a servant.

Another persistent story is that Walter arrived in Mass. with two brothers. They evidently returned to England, married there, and then came back to Scituate. A number of other Woodward/Woodworth immigrants do appear in the Mass. Bay Colony; it is possible they may have been interrelated in some way. Since there is no clear record of Walter in Plymouth Colony between April 1635 and Dec. 1640, he perhaps returned to England during this interval, if it occurred at all.

In 1634, Walter acquired the first of his considerable land holdings, a house lot in Scituate which was the third lot on Kent Street, with an ocean frontage, at the corner of Meeting House Lane; a tract on the First Herring Brook, which was not far below the Stockbridge Mill, where later stood the boyhood home of Samuel Woodworth (the poet); and another tract on the northeast side of Walnut Tree Hill just west of the present Queensbush or South Scituate railroad station, which in early times was called Walter Woodworth's Hill.

Various inhabitants were assigned five house lots between 20 Feb. 1634/5 and April 1635 on the west side of Kent Str., beginning on the north, at the intersection with Meeting House Lane. These town lots were eight rods (132 ft.) wide on Kent Street and extended "80 rods up into the woods."

Walter was a planter and a Surveyor of Highways. As Surveyor of Highways he was responsible for laying out and maintaining the town's roads. Most towns had several surveyors. Each looked after the roads in the section of town in which he lived. In addition each Surveyor was responsible for calling out and supervising the two days of work on the roads which was required annually by each of the town's inhabitants.

Despite the fact that Walter's past in England remains inconclusive, the Plymouth Colony Records contain many entries concerning Walter Woodworth's activities in the new world:

2 Jan. 1633 - Walter "Woodart" in tax lists of those rated for public use at 9 sh. [Plymouth Colony Records, Vol. 1, p. 26, p. 29];

20 Feb. 1634 - Third lot on Kent Street at the corner of Meeting House Lane in the second assignment to Walter Woodworth. The first assignment was 12 April 1633 [Deane, p.9];

1 Dec. 1640 - Walter "Woodward" proposed to be made freeman [Ply. Col. Rec., Vol. 2, p. 3];

2 March 1640/1 - Walter "Woodward" admitted freeman at Plymouth General Court [Ply. Col. Rec., Vol. 2, p. 8];

8 June 1642 - Deed: Annable to Rauline, land adjoining lands of Walter "Woodward" on the east side near Herring Brook [Ply. Col. Rec. Vol. 12, p. 85];

Aug. 1643 - Listed among men from Scituate able to bear arms, 16-60 yrs. - Walter Woodworth [Ply. Col. Rec., Vol. 8, p. 191];

13 Nov. 1643 - Deed: House to Tilden. Lands near North River bounding on marsh land of Walter "Woodward" of Scituate [Ply. Col. Rec., Vol. 12, p. 101];

4 June 1645 - Appointed Surveyor of "Heighwayes" with John Stockbridge at Scituate by General Court [Ply. Col. Rec., Vol. 2, p. 84];

4 June 1645 - Appointed with Thomas Robinson to make equal division of goods in Kempton partnership, a tailor in Scituate [Ply. Col. Rec., Vol. 2, p. 85];

2 June 1646 - Appointed Surveyor of Highways, Scituate [Ply. Col. Rec., Vol. 2, p. 102];

25 March 1650 - Deed: A parcel of marsh land bounded on the west by land of Walter "Woodward," that was once of William Hatch, Sr., and by "the First Herring Brook" [Mayflower Descendants, Vol. 1, p. 92].

In 1653 Walter and William Brooks made inventory of the estate of Thomas Hickes of Scituate.

13 July 1654 he was a member of the First Church, signing by mark, a deed for church land.

3 June 1656 - again appointed Surveyor of Highways [Ply. Col. Rec., Vol. 3, p. 100]

1658 - Listed among the freemen of Scituate, Walter Woodworth [Ply. Col. Rec., Vol. 8, p. 198];

3 June 1662 - Lands granted at Seconett Neck (later Little Compton, R.I.) to "such that were servants and others that are ancient freemen," Walter Woodworth [Ply. Col. Rec., Vol. 4, p. 18];

4 Oct. 1664 - "This Court have likewise granted unto John Hanmore and Walter Woodward of Scituate "who have a right as servants," unto each of them is granted sixty acres of land upon the path going from Bridgewater to Weymouth...." and instructed them "to pay the Indian purchase for it if any bee justly demaunded." [Ply. Col. Rec., Vol. 4, p. 75];

In June, 1665, Plymouth Court directed a request to the townsmen of Scituate that they appoint Cornett Studson and Walter Woodward to assist in settling a boundary dispute of William Randall, if the townsmen are willing.

5 June 1666 - Purchased sixty acres of land granted to J. Whiston, lying at south side of land granted to Walter Woodworth upon path going from Bridgewater to Weymouth [Ply. Col. Rec., Vol. 4, p. 129];

5 July 1666 - Walter Woodworth taxed for purchase of Indian purchase for the west end of town. [Ply. Col. Rec., Vol. 7, p. 130];

In 1672, Thomas Clapp and Walter Woodworth took an inventory of the estate of William Soane.

In 1673, with Josiah Winslow and 27 others, he was at Plymouth Colony Court to establish right to land in Little Compton, R.I. He received a whole share of the land (then called Seconet), which included Lot #2 in the First Purchase, drawn at Duxbury in 1674.

In 1674, Walter is mentioned as indebted to the estate of Richard Beare of Marshfield.

In 1675, Walter drew two adjoining 50-acre lots in Seconet together with Thomas Williams, in the Second Purchase.

March 1676 - Mary Ingham cleared of charge of witchcraft in relation to 13-year old Mehitable Woodworth, daughter of Walter Woodworth of Scituate [Ply. Col. Rec., Vol. 5, p. 223];

7 July 1681 - Walter Woodworth sues Japhet Turner in land case and recovers damages. [Ply. Col. Rec., Vol. 7, p. 238];

By the late 1650's Walter's name begins to be occasionally entered as Woodworth rather than Woodward, but often varied. As Walter could not write and signed documents "by marke," it probably wasn't of much concern to him.

Walter Woodworth made his Will 26 November 1685 and on 2 March 1686 testimony relating to the Will was taken in Court.

The following is Walter's Will from Genealogical and Family History of the State of Connecticut, 1911, p. 885. A copy also appears in the Descendants of Walter Woodworth by William A. Woodworth.

In the name of God, Amen. I, Walter Woodward, of Scituate, in the jurisdiction of New Plymouth in New England, in America, being weak in body, but of sound and perfect memory, praise to Almighty God for the same, do make this my last will and testament in manner as followeth:

A copy of the INVENTORY appears in the Addendum of this book.

In May of 1985, Victor Montes (a Woodworth family genealogist) and his wife Eve made a trip to the Plymouth County Commissioner's Office, South Russell Street, Plymouth, Mass. 02360, where Walter's Will is located. He found the Will is made up as a deed and on Pages 382-385, Part 2, Vol. 5 (Deeds), Plymouth Colony Records. This Will is not the original, but a photo copy of it embedded on special paper. Mr. Montes was told he could not have a photo copy, because the light given off from their photo copier would damage the pages and the image of the Will (deed). However, he was informed that he could bring his own camera and with the natural light could take a picture.

In the Descendants of Walter Woodworth by William A. Woodworth, 1898 [hereafter noted as WAW], Walter is given an additional son named Walter Woodworth, Jr., born about 1645 whom today's researchers agree did not exist. The Little Compton records it seems caused this error by inadvertently listing a Walter Woodworth as born 1645 and married 1669. It has been established that these entries appeared in a later copy of the records and are not part of the original Vital Records of Little Compton.

Children named in Will, all born perhaps Scituate although only Mary and Mehitable are recorded there:

2. i. THOMAS, b. about 1641.

ii. SARAH, b. about 1643. She was living in 1686, it has been suggested she reputedly married Thomas Mann, son of Richard Mann, b. Scituate 15 August 1650. However, Thomas Mann settled at Rehoboth, Mass., where his 1st wife Rachel and infant son Josiah d. in 1676. He m. (2) 1678 in Rehoboth, Mary Wheaton and had 8 or 9 more children up to 1697 or 1699 [per Barbara Cruchon material]

3. iii. JOSEPH, b. about 1645 [Little Compton records].

iv. ELIZABETH, b. about 1647. In 1675 she bore a child out of wedlock, fathered by Robert Stetson, Jr. of Scituate. He was ordered by the court to pay her 2 sh. a week for the first three months, and afterwards 1 sh. 6 d. until the child was seven years old. Elizabeth's brother Joseph and Robert's father, Robert Stetson, agreed that the verdict was just. Documentation is in records of Plymouth Colony. Elizabeth evidently went elsewhere to live with her child, for no other trace of her has been found in Scituate or R.I. records. It is not known if she married later, but it is certain that she did not marry Robert Stetson, Jr., for he married Joanna or Deborah Brooks in 1676, dau. of William Brooks and removed shortly afterward to Duxbury, Mass. (Material from Barbara A. Cruchon).

4. v. BENJAMIN, b. about 1649.

vi. MARY, b. 10 March 1650/1 and was living 1 Jan. 1720. She m. Scituate 24 Dec. 1677 Aaron Simmons (also Simons/Symons), b. perhaps Duxbury about 1638 and d. before 12 Feb. 1719, son of Moses and Sarah Simmons/Symonson. Ch., all born Plymouth [from Ancestry & Descendants of Samuel Bartlett and Lucy Jenkins compiled by Edith Bartlett Sumner, 1951; Scituate VR]. (Surname) SIMMONS: 1. Rebecca b. 2 Dec. 1679; d. Scituate 17 Jan. 1760; m. Scituate 1 Jan. 1707/8 Timothy White; 2. Moses, b. 24 Feb. 1681/2; m. Scituate 1 Jan. 1712 Rachel Cudworth; 3. Mary, b. 11

He kept a trader's shop at Scituate. Although, Thomas may have purchased lands at Little Compton, as early as 1674, it is not known if he ever lived there and his name does not appear on a list of First Settlers in Little Compton on that date.

In May 1676 his home was burned by Indians who made an incursion into Scituate and committed extensive damage during King Philip's War.

In 1690 he was chosen "Clerk of the Market" holding that office until 1711; in 1712, he was appointed "Scaler of Weights and Measures," which is understood to be another name for his previous office.

His Will was dated 13 February 1718/19 and proved 17 March following. His wife Deborah was mentioned; son Hezekiah's children; sons John, Ebenezer to have homestead; daughters Deborah Pincen, Catherine Davenport, Mary Vinal, Hannah Jackson, and Jerusha Randall. SEE ADDENDUM.

Joseph married Scituate 6 January 1669/70 SARAH STOCKBRIDGE, bp. Scitute 15 March 1645/6 and living December 1712 (date Joseph's Will was made), daughter of John and his second wife Elizabeth (Hatch) Soane Stockbridge. SEE ADDENDUM.

"Elizabeth Hatch, born about 1600; died in New England between 1647 and 1654. She married (1) in England, Robert Soan of Brasted, Co. Kent, who was living on 23 March 1628/9. She married (2) at Scituate, 9 October 1643 as his second wife, John Stockbridge of Scituate; wheelwright. Had one son by first husband and three children by second" [Pack, p. 42].

Joseph is mentioned in the Plymouth records as a freeman in 1689. He was a shopkeeper at Scituate; however, he purchased lands at Little Compton, which he gave to his eldest son. He received lands in Scituate and Seconet from his father and acquired other land mentioned in his Will. He conducted his "trading post" some 60 rods south of the Stockbridge grist mill. It was stated he often assisted in the milling of the grain since the senior Stockbridge had removed to Boston and left the operation in charge of his son, Charles.

Joseph witnessed a pre-nuptial agreement between William Tubbs, Sr. and Dorothy Soane on 23 March 1672.

In the records of the Colony of New Plymouth [7:197], he was one of a jury 7 March 1675 before Governor Josiah Winslow. In the same records, p. 312 in the October court session, Captain John Williams of Scituate complained against Joseph Woodworth and other claimers pretended properties in partnership with the plaintiff in undivided lands in Cohasset, Mass. The action was settled out of court and 42 sh. allowed the defendants. In 1680 his name appears on a petition to the General Court in Plymouth relating to a dispute between two church factions, then threatening to disrupt the town.

Joseph's Will which was allowed 13 June 1718, reads as follows:

4. BENJAMIN 2 WOODWORTH, son of Walter 1; born Scituate, Plymouth Colony, about 1649 and died Lebanon, Conn., 22 April 1728. His Will is dated Lebanon 21 January 1726; proved 3 July 1728.

Benjamin married (1) before 1682 DEBORAH (perhaps BENJAMIN) [Torrey 102:151]; he married (2) before 1689 HANNAH (perhaps DAMON). Death dates and last names of his wives are unknown at this time.

On the 23rd day of June 1692, Benjamin sold his land at Scituate, his second wife Hannah signing the deed with him, and he removed to Little Compton, Bristol Co., Mass. Bay, where his brother Isaac had preceded him.

In 1703, Benjamin removed again to Lebanon and bought a large tract of land from Phillip Smith on 25 February 1703, and was admitted as inhabitant of the town on 22 December 1704. His farm was situated in the northeast part of the town, and on account of its remoteness from the church, he with others, petitioned in 1714 for a new church. In 1716 this new church was formed called Lebanon North Parish; later the town of Columbia.

In Lebanon land records [2:469] we find: "Moses Woodworth of Norwich sold to Benjamin Woodworth of Lebanon five acres in Little Compton, Bristol Co., Colony of Mass. Bay, land being one-third of a 15-acre tract which was originally Walter Woodworth's."

Benjamin deeded land to his eldest son Benjamin in December 1712; to sons Ichabod and Ebenezer 13 February 1717/8; to son Amos 6 May 1720; to son Ezekiel who was "to care for his honored father and mother" 6 May 1723; to youngest son Caleb 21 January 1726/7.

On 4 November 1714, Benjamin is said to have received land for service rendered in King Phillip's War. It is believed this account may have become confused with a Benjamin Woodward who was killed in that war.

Children mentioned in Benjamin's Will, but not recorded in Lebanon or Little Compton [Genealogical & Family History of the State of Connecticut, 1911, p. 885].

Note: In 1982 G. Alan Royce (a Woodworth Family Genealogist) of Erdenheim, Penn., analyzed the problem of too many Caleb Fitch's married to too many Ruth Woodworth's. "Ruth (#4-viii) Woodworth is in some sources stated to have married Caleb Fitch. Unless there were two or three Caleb Fitches (which is doubtful, since I can only find one) who married a Ruth Woodworth according to the records, I do not believe this Ruth ever married Caleb Fitch. From The Waterman Family by Jacobus & Waterman, Vol. 1, p. 655: Children of Nathaniel and Ann (Abel) Fitch, b. at Lebanon (12) youngest Caleb, b. 17 June 1725 and d. 19 March 1750, Lebanon; m. there (other records all say Bozrah), 4 April 1747, Ruth Woodworth.

According to some sources, there were two other Ruth Woodworths who also married Caleb Fitch: (1) Ruth, daughter of Joshua (#22) Woodworth, b. 27 April 1730, Norwich, Conn. They were married at Bozrah, so for geographical reasons as much as anything, it is my belief that it is this Ruth who m. Caleb Fitch. (2) Ruth, daughter of Joseph (#26) Woodworth, b. 23 Jan. 1728, at Little Compton. This family later lived at Lebanon, and she may be the right Ruth.

By now, it is apparent that I do not think that Ruth, daughter of Benjamin (#4) Woodworth ever married a Caleb Fitch. At least she didn't marry the one I found, because he wasn't born until 1725. I believe Joseph Owen was her only husband. The 11 children are listed in the Owen Genealogy; how many of them were by his first wife and how many by Ruth, is not known at this point. I think that this is one of those errors made years ago that has been perpetuated over the years and is difficult to get rid of."

5. ISAAC 2 WOODWORTH, son of Walter 1; born perhaps Scituate, Plymouth Colony about 1660 and died Norwich, Conn. 1 April 1714, leaving his wife and nine children.

Isaac married perhaps Scituate about 1684 LYDIA STANDLICK, daughter of Richard and Lydia Standlick [Plymouth Colony Records, Deeds dated 28 April 1701].

He is mentioned as "Isaac Woodward of Little Compton in Ye County of Bristol," in the New England Historical and Genealogical Register.

In 1705 he was admitted as a Freeman by a vote of Norwich inhabitants. He was a carpenter and built the second meeting house in Norwich.

He made his Will 5 January 1713/14, and it was proved 13 April 1714, his son Moses being executor. The ages of the children ranged from 8 to 27 in 1714 according to the probate file.

John married Scituate Second Church by Rev. Nathaniel Eells, 3 December 1718 MARY ROSE who died Hanover 21 July 1757; perhaps daughter of Thomas Rose of Scituate.

One child recorded at Scituate:

25. i. JOHN, b. 7 Sept. 1720.

8. EBENEZER 3 WOODWORTH, son of Thomas 2 and Deborah (Walter 1); born Scituate, Plymouth Colony 10 August 1690. Death date is unknown at this time.

He married First Church, Scituate, by Rev. Nathaniel Pitcher (1) 16 October 1712 MARY WADE, descendant of Nicholas Wade. She born Scituate 3 December 1688. He married perhaps (2) at Second Church 20 March 1718/9 JOANNA WOODWARD, born 20 February 1696, daughter of Robert and Bethiah (Torrey) Woodward of Scituate [Woodward, p. 132]. A daughter Ann, of Ebenezer and Joanna Woodworth, was bp. 1727 at Second Church; however, Scituate town and church records are confusing and contradictory; whether there are one, two, or more Ebenezers is not clear.

Children by first wife, recorded at Scituate:

i. ELINOR, b. 24 June 1712/13; bp. 9 Sept. 1722; m. Scituate 16 Sept. 1731 Joseph Northey; 9 ch., the oldest of whom, Joseph, died soon after his marriage. Betty, his widow m. Benjamin [#79] Woodworth.

iii. MARGARET, b. 14 May 1723; bp. 26 Sept. 1725; m. Scituate (int. 19 Sept.) 19 Oct. 1747 Thomas Webb.

iv. HANNAH, b. 7 May 1725.

Child by second wife perhaps:

v. ANN, bp. Scituate Second Church 1727.

9. JOSEPH 3 WOODWORTH, son of Joseph 2 and Sarah (Walter 1); born Scituate, Plymouth Colony, 10 (11?) (19?) March 1670/1 and died Lebanon about 1745. A weaver.

He married Little Compton as early as 1694 REBECCA as indicated by deeds; however, her family name is not known. It has been said she was Rebecca Symmes/Simmons, daughter of Aaron and Mary (Woodworth) Simmons, however, this Rebecca was not born until 2 December 1679 and married Timothy White 1 January 1707/8.

Joseph lived his married life at Little Compton until around 1734 when they went to Lebanon.

Little Compton deeds [17:105], then Bristol County, Mass. Bay, 1 March 1725/6, Joseph Woodworth of Little Compton sold acreage to Elihu Woodworth for 850 pounds, he, Joseph having "a good and perfect estate of inheritance in fee simple." Rebecca, his wife, released her dower rights the next day.

Children all recorded at Little Compton:

26. i. JOSEPH, b. 17 March 1695/6.
27. ii. JEDEDIAH, b. 1 Dec. 1699.
iii. Perhaps AMEY, b. Scituate about 1701; d. 13 Feb. 1709.

10. BENJAMIN 3 WOODWORTH, son of Joseph 2 and Sarah (Walter 1); born Scituate, Plymouth Colony 6 August 1676 and died Scituate April/May 1732.

He married by Rev. Nathaniel Eells at Second Church, Scituate, 14 February 1716/7 ANNA TORREY born Scituate 16 September 1680 and died after 1732, daughter of Deacon James and Elizabeth (Rawlins) Torrey [Torrey, pp. 37, 38]. Ann was an aunt of Margaret Torrey who married in 1723 Jedediah [#27] Woodworth, nephew of Benjamin.

It is felt that this Benjamin married only once. Some accounts err in supposing that it was Benjamin who married as a first wife 17 August 1712, Mary Wright, but the Benjamin Woodward of that marriage was born 31 May 1690, son of Robert. They had 8 children born in Scituate and this family moved to Leicester and Spencer, Mass." [McArthur, p. 36].

Benjamin's Will was dated 14 April 1732, proved 15 May 1732 and provided for his wife and three children [Plymouth Probate, 6:196].

Children all recorded in Scituate and bp. First Church, Scituate:

He married Lebanon 26 March 1718 SARAH BASS, born 19 September 1699 and died Lebanon 3 May 1753, daughter of John and Elizabeth (Neale) Bass of Braintree, Mass.

Sarah Bass is distantly related to three United States Presidents, John Adams [2nd President] John Quincy Adams [6th President] and Calvin Coolidge. Proof of these lines exist at the New England Historic & Genealogical Society in Boston, Mass., in the following sources: Excerpts from Waldo C. Sprague collection on Braintree Area Families; The Register , Vol. 107; C. H. Pope's Pioneers of Massachusetts covering the entire known ancestry of Sarah Bass Woodworth; Burke's Presidential Families of U.S.A.; 2nd Edition, 1981; and The American Genealogist, Vol. 53.

13. EBENEZER 3 WOODWORTH, son of Benjamin 2 and Hannah (Walter 1); born Little Compton, Bristol Co., Mass. Bay, about 1691. Probably not a twin to brother, Ichabod. He is probably the "aged Mr. Woodworth" who died at Lebanon, Conn. 1784, recorded in Columbia Crank Church.

Ebenezer married Lebanon 27 December 1717 REBECCA SMALLEY, Mayflower Descendant, and daughter of Benjamin and Rebecca (Snow) Smalley. Rebecca's marriage listed as Mayflower #30811 and Ebenezer's marriage listed as Mayflower #31660; descendants are eligible as Mayflower Society members.

On 20 November 1784 his son, Ebenezer, Jr., sold land he had purchased of his honored father.

Ebenezer made his Will 31 October 1765, and it was probated 10 October 1785. His Will mentions his four sons, Viz. Ebenezer, Eliphalet, Joseph and Amasa to whom "three shilling lawful money, which with what I have already given them by deed is the whole of their part of my Estate."

Children, all born Lebanon:

36. i. EBENEZER, b. 26 Sept. 1718.

14. AMOS 3 WOODWORTH, son of Benjamin 2 and Hannah (Walter 1); born about 1697; death date unknown.

He married Lebanon First Church 3 October 1722 ALICE (ELIS) MATTHEWS and probably moved to Union, Conn. Both he and his wife are mentioned in Richard Newcomb's store book, 1735/8; and his name also appears in a rate bill for Columbia Church in 1741.

An Amos of Lebanon had Jesse Negus indentured to him in June, 1742. He could not have been the Amos of Windham who died 1765 and had a son Ebenezer old enough to have a married daughter in 1754. This Ebenezer must have been born before 1720. It is doubtful there were children.

15. EZEKIEL 3 WOODWORTH, son of Benjamin 2 and Hannah (Walter 1); born about 1696; called "of Lebanon" and died Lebanon 20 July 1745 (7?).

He married Second Church, Scituate, 14 November 1723 LYDIA SIMMONS, born 27 March 1693 and died Lebanon 1792 (?), daughter of Aaron and Mary (Woodworth #1-vi) Simmons.

Benajah Bill was appointed guardian for Benjamin; Jonathan Clark appointed guardian for Peleg and released from that responsibility 22 July 1752; and John Dewey was appointed guardian of Mary.

Ezekiel's Will is as follows: "In the name of God Amen the fifteenth day of July 1747, I, Ezekiel Woodwarth of Lebanon being in a weak and languishing condition of body but of perfect mind and memory thanks be to God therefore calling to mind the mortality of my body and knowing that it is appointed for all men once to dye do make and ordain this my last will and testament that is to say principly and first of all I give and recomend my soul into the hands of God that gave it and my body I recomend to the earth to be buried in decent Christian burial at the discresion of my executor nothing doubting but at the generall resurrection I shall receive the same by the mighty power of God and as touching such worldly goods or estate wherewith it has pleased God to bless me in this life I give demise and dispose of in manner and form as followeth:

Daggett, Boston, 1894, p. 394: "(On) 20 December 1756, Hannah Woodworth of Scituate, Mass., administratrix of estate of Benjamin Woodworth, late of said Scituate, mariner, sold to John Doggett of Scituate, mariner, 3-3/4 acres of land in Scituate [Plymouth Deeds, 44-45]....For 19 pounds same date, John Doggett gives Hannah Woodworth use and improvement of the easterly great Benjamin, Jr.

Early Connecticut Marriages, Second Book, p. 45 by F. W. Bailey records the marriage at Lebanon First Church of Benjamin Woodworth to Catherine Shields on 18 June 1756. The fact that Benjamin and Catherine were married at Lebanon seems to put him in the Benjamin line, but his being of Bozrah (per one theory) would point to his being of the Isaac line. More research is needed on this.

The oldest deed of land, of which anything can be learned, was given by the commissioners of forfeiture of the state to Gershom Woodworth in 1786. It conveys the farm first occupied by Truman Christie and afterwards owned by H. H. Woodworth. The first log house was built on this farm, as well as the first orchard planted, both of which were done by Christie.

Jesse Chatfield, brother-in-law and husband of Ephraim's sister Freelove, witnessed their marriage. The Munger Book by J. B. 48. SOLOMON 4 WOODWORTH, son of Caleb and Jane (Benjamin 2, Walter 1); born Salisbury, Litchfield Co., Conn., 4 May 1748 and died 7 September 1781; killed in an Indian ambush near Fort Dayton, New York. Buried where they fell.

He married by J. Lee, Salisbury, 13 October 1770 [Salisbury Assoc. Vital Records, Vol. II, p. 122]. PHEBE THORNTON, her parents and/or date of birth not known.

Solomon was listed as Lieutenant and Captain, New York Militia in Revolution in Tyron Co. Militia [DAR #159773].

He removed to Mayfield, Fulton Co., New York with his brother Selah, purchasing a tract of land southwest of the village. The Indians at this time were very troublesome; therefore, Selah tried to induce his brother to return with him to Conn. Solomon would not consent to this and proceeded to locate on the Brooks Farm, which was but a short distance from a house that he built as a stockade in which to shield himself from hostile Indian assault. The increasing hostilities of the British and their savage allies made the homes of the few pioneers especially vulnerable to danger; and Solomon found it necessary during these perilous times to remain inside the stockade at night. A Mayflower writer of some years ago states: "Here in the winter of 1780 Solomon Woodworth was attacked by a party of Indians. Being short of bullets, his faithful wife laid her little child by the fire and with the spirit that characterized heroines at that time ran bullets as fast as her husband could shoot. The result was the retreat of the Indians and Tories with one wounded. Early in the morning Captain Woodworth rallied a few of his band, followed the retreating party for three days, and at length surprised and killed them all."

Immediately after this successful expedition Solomon was appointed Lieutenant in a company of nine-months' men. At the expiration of this term in the year of 1781, he was appointed Captain for the purpose of forming a company of rangers to explore the woods. He at once raised a Company of able-bodied soldiers, all well armed and equipped. From Fort Dayton, he started at the head of his little band in a northerly direction to range the woods. His band became surrounded by an Indian ambush, outnumbering them two to one. A short, but bloody and decisive conflict ensued. Captain Woodworth was killed and only 15 men out of 41 escaped; all the rest either killed or taken prisoners. [Mayfield, Fulton Co., NY Archives record].

There is considerable confusion as to the number of children Solomon had. Only Caleb is on record at Salisbury. One account states Solomon had 3 sons - Caleb, Elijah, Solomon and 3 daughters, not named. Another account states there were 4 daughters.

Children known at this time:

i. JANE, b. about 1769, living 1846 at Percy, Northumberland, Upper Canada; m. Johnstown, N.Y., 20 July 1792, Charles Tripp, b. Nine Partners, Dutchess Co., N.Y., 25 June 1761; 13 ch. [From Rev. War pension and widow's pension records].

Buried in family cemetery with wife on his farm in a plot surrounded by a native granite wall. His Will was dated 25 September 1823; probated 15 December 1823 in which he mentions his wife and children.

He married by John Hutchinson, Salisbury 30 December 1773 [Salis. Assoc. VR, Vol. II, p. 122] REBECCA DUNHAM, born Sheffield, Mass., 12 January 1755 and died Mayfield 3 June 1838, daughter of Jacob and Elizabeth (Pettee) Dunham. Rebecca a descendant of Rev. John Dunham who married a Delano of Pres. Franklin Delano Roosevelt's line.

Selah moved to Mayfield, N.Y., soon after his marriage with Solomon and Jacob Dunham (Rebecca's father); they being among the first settlers to obtain land there. The Town of Mayfield was for the greater part laid out on Selah's land.

After a few years, Selah and the family returned to Conn. There he became a Sargeant in Captain Little's Co. 3rd N.Y. Regiment under Colonel Fisher. He took part in the Battle of Oriskany. After the War his family returned to Mayfield.

Selah was chosen Supervisor of Mayfield at first Town Meeting 1 April 1794.

He deeded land 28 January 1823 for the Methodist Church. Inside the door of the church is a plaque "Selah Woodworth, who founded this church in the year 1830, b. Aug. 11, 1750; d. Oct 25, 1823."

He m. (3) Horton, Nova Scotia, 15 January 1781 MARY (MAYHEW) RAND who died 28 April 1789.
Three children are recorded at Norwich. Thomas perhaps the one who joined the 1st Congregational Church at Groton, Conn., 4 October 1741.
In 1760, he removed to Cornwallis and received a grant 25 July 1761.
He is not to be confused with Thomas (#69) Woodworth who was a pioneer at Falmouth, Nova Scotia and received a grant there, Lot #31.
Children by first wife:

i. ELIZABETH, b. Norwich 2 June 1753; d. Cornwallis 28 March 1841; m. 23 Nov. 1775 Stephen Eaton who d. 20 April 1838, son of David Eaton and Deborah (White) Eaton of Canning, NS; 10 ch.; Bur. Hamilton's Corner, Canard, N.S.

55. ELIJAH 4 WOODWORTH, son of David 3 and Hannah (Isaac 2, Walter 1); born Norwich, Conn., 25 September 1726 and died New London, Conn., about 1770. Served in French and Indian War.

He perhaps married a sister of Colonel Thomas Ledyard. In 1737 he moved to Lebanon, Conn., with his father and might have married there.

WAW in his book stated Elijah died New London, Conn., about 1760; however there is no evidence of this. He may have been confused with his brother Elisha who died in service in 1760.

In 1790 Census, Thetford, Vermont, there was a Levi and in 1800 Census there was an Elijah; either one of whom may have been sons of Elijah. On the other hand, they could also have been sons of his brother David. In 1800 Census Elijah is recorded between 26-45 and had a son under 10 and wife between 16-26 and two other members in his family; no relationship indicated.

The names of his wife and children do not appear anywhere with certainty, indicating he may have died young. Although WAW lists Nathan, Ziba, Betsey and Lola as children; Ziba is almost positively erroneous.

Possible children, order unknown:

166. i. NATHAN, b. Goshen, Conn., 29 August 1759.
ii. BETSY, d. Genesee Co., N.Y., 1833; m. Goshen 2nd Church 3 Sept. 1779 John Law.

iv. ELIJAH, b. Thetford between 1755 and 1774; m. there 14 Nov. 1797, Deborah Taylor.

56. ELISHA 4 WOODWORTH, son of David 3 and Hannah (Isaac 2, Walter 1); born at Norwich, 2 May 1730 and died in service November 1760.

Member of Lebanon Church in 1749.

There is no evidence he was married.

He served in the French and Indian War from Conn. On 1 May 1759 he was in Captain Fitch's Lebanon Company and on 16 April of that year he was in Captain Host's Lebanon Company from Goshen, Conn.

57. DAVID 4 WOODWORTH, son of David 3 and Hannah (Isaac 2, Walter 1); born at Lebanon, Conn., 29 January 1737/8; bp. in Lebanon Church in 1756; death date unknown.

He married SARAH, perhaps daughter of Caleb Burnham. The Vernon, Conn., Church records show that David and wife (name not given) made a covenant 25 October 1767.

He was in Captain Barker's Lebanon Company on 1 May 1758; and on a muster roll of Captain Fitch's Lebanon Company. In 1761 he was a Sergeant in Captain McNeal's Co. [Connecticut Historical Collection 2:48, 142, 178, 280].

He was living in 1790 as established from Conn. Public Records: "Sarah Woodworth wife of David Woodworth of East Windsor, Hartford Co., made petition to the Conn. Assembly in May 1790 showing that for a number of years past her husband David had been deprived of his reason and that she is no longer able to support herself and children and represents that her husband is possessed of 26 acres with a small house in East Windsor which she the said Sarah owned before her marriage with said David and she applies for permission to sell it." The permission was granted.

Children on record [bp. of children recorded in Vernon Church]:

167. i. LEVI bp. 1 Nov. 1767.
ii. RHODA, bp. 2 April 1769.
iii. SARAH, bp. 27 October 1771; d. 1 April 1835 age 64.

58. MOSES 4 WOODWORTH, son of David 3 and Hannah (Isaac 2, Walter 1); born at Lebanon, 7 March 1748; date of death unknown.

He married perhaps ESTHER MONTAGUE; went to Vermont. No further record.

59. DANIEL 4 WOODWORTH, son of Daniel 3 and Mehitable (Isaac, Walter 1); born at Norwich, 20 August 1721; not named in father's Will of 1775 [Norwich Vital Records], so perhaps deceased.

He married Norwich, Conn., 27 November 1740 SARAH CULVER/COLVER, b. Lebanon, Conn., 24 August 1723, daughter of John and Sarah (Hibbard) Culver. Sarah admitted communion Bozrah 2 August 1739 [Giorgi, p. 45].

Three children recorded at Norwich after which no further trace of Daniel is found. It is possible he moved to New York State as his sons Absalom and Robert were there before 1768.

Children, all born Norwich:

168. i. ABSALOM, b. 13 August 1741.

169. ii. ROBERT, b. 13 June 1743.
iii. DANIEL, b. 13 Jan. 1744/5; bp. 24 March 1745 [See note below].

Note 1: From Revolutionary Soldiers Buried in Indiana by Margaret R. Waters, 1949, lists a Daniel Woodworth buried in Greene Co., Ind.; Served in Rev. War from New York [Pension #32612], b. 14 Jan. 1752, Ulster Co., N.Y. Other than the year of his birth, the other dates are close enough to speculate that this may be Daniel (#59-iii).

Also from A History of the Minisink Region.... Orange Co., NY... by Charles E. Stickney, 1867, Daniel Woodworth was one of the signers of the Articles of Association from the present Town of Deerpark, then part of the Town of Mamakating, Ulster Co., N.Y., on 26 June 1775. This Daniel may fit as #59-iii; could possibly be son of this Daniel also. A Daniel Woodworth in 1840 Census record of Greene Co., Ind., age 88 came from Ohio about 1818/19; LeMon S. Woodworth in same Census.

60. BENJAMIN 4 WOODWORTH, son of Daniel 3 and Mehitable (Isaac 2, Walter 1); born Norwich, 9 December 1724 [Norwich VR]; bp. 11 July 1725 and may have died Montpelier, Vermont, or vicinity as he appears to be the one listed there in the 1800 Census; children Joseph and Ziba also listed in same vicinity.

He married (1) at Groton, Conn., before 1750 SUSANNAH STREET, born Groton, 19 December 1722 daughter of Nicholas and Jerusha Street. He married (2) ELIZABETH (?). He may be the Benjamin who married Bozrah 4 May 1758 ELIZABETH SIMMS.

At a meeting of the Governor and Committee of Safety held at Lebanon 28 May 1782, Benjamin presented a petition for assistance showing that two of his sons had been wounded at Groton Heights in defense of the fort and that he had been at much expense in nursing them. It is certain that one of those sons referred to was Azel and the other was no doubt Ziba who was wounded in the battle.

In 1790 was perhaps living at Hartford, Windsor Co., Vermont with wife and no children.

Information on this family is uncertain. WAW in his book was able to locate only 9 children; however, another source states there were 19 children indicating that Benjamin most probably was married at least twice.

Children perhaps all born Norwich:

170. i. BENJAMIN.

61. WILLIAM 4 WOODWORTH, son of Daniel 3 and Mehitable (Isaac 2, Walter 1); born Norwich, 3 October 1732; bp. there 21 January 1733; date of death unknown, but he did appear in the 1790 Census at Suffield, Conn., where he was called "William Woodcoalk." William named executor of father's Will, 1775.

He married (1) First Congregational Church, Lebanon, 6 August 1760 ANN SYMS of Lebanon, parentage unknown; she died Suffield, Conn. He married (2) perhaps Suffield about 1777/8, CONTENT (ALLYN) MITCHELL, widow of George Mitchell.

This William [#61] is confused in some histories with William [#77], son of Jedediah (son of Joseph), who was born about 1731 at Lebanon and married 1752 Sarah Blackmore and settled in Nova Scotia in 1760.

Moreover, it is likely that Daniel would not have named his son William as executor of his Will in 1775 if he was then as far away as Nova Scotia.

William was a weaver at Stonington, Conn.

Children by first marriage, all born Groton:

i. ANNA, b. about 1762; m. Mr. Peck; res. Corning, N.Y.

181. ii. WILLIAM, b. 22 Dec. 1763.

62. NATHANIEL 4 WOODWORTH, son of Daniel 3 and Mehitabel (Isaac 2, Walter 1); born Norwich, Conn., 15 March 1734; bp. 30 March 1735.

He married 24 April 1759, PRISCILLA RANDALL, born about 1737, daughter of Jonathan and Preserved (Pelton) Randall of Stonington and Groton, Conn.

Nathaniel probably served in the French and Indian War in Captain Bishop's Company when he was called at New London, Conn. Was in service from May to December 1759. Ensign Benjamin Woodworth of Groton, probably his brother, was in the same company.

Last two names in list of children not confirmed:

i. ROBERT, b. perhaps Groton 24 April 1760.

186. ii. ROSWELL, b. Groton 1 May 1763.

187. iii. JONATHAN, b. Groton about 1764.

iv. MARY.

63. JONATHAN 4 WOODWORTH, son of Stephen 3 and Allithear/Alethea/Alithea (Isaac 2, Walter 1); born Norwich, Conn., 26 October 1738, bp. 20 January 1739 and died Covert, Seneca Co., New York 5 September 1818, [grave stone marker reads age 79-11-12 which would make his birth about 23 September 1738, but the first birth date is as in all other records]; buried Baptist Cemetery next to Pratt homestead in Covert with wife.

He married Willington, Conn., 29 October 1767 (other records state married Town of New London, Conn.) MERCY PARKER of Willington, born 5 April 1743 and died Covert 15 June 1820 [grave stone marker] daughter of Nehemiah and Bethel (Bassett) Parker.

Owned land in New London in 1772. 75. CONSTANT 5 WOODWORTH, son of Jedediah 4 and Margaret (Joseph 3,2, Walter 1); born perhaps Lebanon, Conn. about 1727 and was living in 1777 when he was mentioned in Eleazer Hutchinson's Will; the inventory of his own estate was taken the same year.

He married Lebanon REBECCA HUTCHINSON, born Lebanon 17 March 1733, daughter of Eleazer and Jemina (Wright) Hutchinson.

Children were born at Lebanon; records of the family can be found in Cazenovia, N.Y. files:

219. i. ELEAZER, b. 6 Nov. 1752.

ii. ABIGAIL, b. 22 July 1754; m. Coventry, Conn., 25 May 1775, Timothy Cowles, b. Farmington, Conn., 16 May 1754. Moved to Brookfield, Ver. prior to 1785; he was appointed guardian to Beriah [#222] Woodworth of Lebanon and gave bond with Eleazer Woodworth of Coventry as surety; 11 ch. [Cowles, 1:235].

220. iii. SAMUEL, b. 30 May 1756.

221. iv. BENJAMIN, b. 2 April 1759.

v. MARY, b. 15 Nov. 1762; d. 1795; m. David Newcomb, b. Lebanon 13 Feb. 1763; d. 28 Feb. 1819 [Newcomb, p. 153].

222. vi. BERIAH, b. 23 May 1765.

76. BENJAMIN 5 WOODWORTH, son of Jedediah 4 and Margaret (Joseph 3,2, Walter 1); born perhaps Lebanon, Conn., about 1729 and is the Benjamin whose death is recorded on 4 February 1759 [Lebanon VR and inscription at Lebanon cemetery] in 30th year.

It would appear that he was married and that he was probably the father of the Benjamin who later resided at Bethel, Vermont and who stated he was born East Windsor, Conn., in 1756 in the part which is now Ellington.

A probable son:

223. i. BENJAMIN, b. Tolland 6 Feb. 1757.

77. WILLIAM 5 WOODWORTH, son of Jedediah 4 and Margaret (Joseph 3, 2, Walter 1); born perhaps Lebanon, Conn., 1731, and evidently died in King's County, Nova Scotia, some time after 1767.

He married perhaps Hanover, Mass., about 1752 SARAH BLACKMORE born about 1736 and died Cornwallis, Nova Scotia, 10 November 1767, perhaps daughter of John Blackmore of Hanover.

He removed with his family to Cornwallis and on 25 July 1763 received a grant of several hundred acres.

Nothing further has been learned of William although it is possible that he remarried.

He recorded the births of all his children on the Cornwallis records, although the first three were born before their arrival in Nova Scotia. After the mother died, some of the children returned to the States perhaps to be brought up in the family of relatives and possibly by their grandfather Jedediah who was yet alive and living in Lebanon.

Children:

i. ELIZABETH/BETTY,. b. Lebanon 13 Sept. 1753; m. 14 May 1772 James Smith of Newport, R.I.

224. ii. WILLIAM, b. Lebanon 3 August 1755.

227 v. LEONARD, b. Cornwallis 4 Feb. 1763.

228. vi. BRANCH, b. Cornwallis 25 March 1765.

vii. LEMUEL, b. Cornwallis 2 Feb. 1767

78. JEDEDIAH 5 WOODWORTH, son of Jedediah 4 and Margaret (Joseph 3, 2, Walter 1); born perhaps Lebanon, Conn., perhaps about 1750 and died Columbia, Conn., 5 January 1853 [Columbia, Conn., VR, Deaths]; res. at Columbia at time of death.

He married 12 May 1767 by Rev. Eleazer Wheelock, ADAH [listed on pension record], parentage unknown. In Columbia, Conn., VR, Deaths, called "JERRY, widow of Jedediah, died 10 March 1837, age 95 years."

He was on the French and Indian War rolls for Conn. as having served in Vermont in 1760; in the campaign of 1761/2; served as a drummer boy. He enlisted 2 March 1762 and was discharged 2 December of that year.

He served in the Conn. line during the Revolution and was granted a pension under the Act of 1818.

In 1790 Census, Jedediah lived at Lebanon and beside himself and wife, one male under 16 and one female were listed.

He had a large family but because of impoverished circumstances they may have been bound out at an early age. There may have been other children besides those listed below:

i. BETSY.
ii. JEDEDIAH.
iii. CONSTANT.
iv. CHARLOTTE.
v. WILLIAM, living in 1823.
vi. SARAH.
vii. CYRUS, b. about 1788; youngest; living in 1823.

79. BENJAMIN 5 WOODWORTH, son of Benjamin 4 and Hannah (Benjamin 3, Joseph 2, Walter 1); born Scituate, Mass. 15 June 1750; bp. 17 June 1750 and died there 5 August 1830.

He married (1) 26 November 1778 [marriage intention 14 November 1778] ABIGAIL BRYANT, born Scituate 31 December 1747 and there died about 1802, daughter of Samuel and Mary (Buck) Bryant. He married (2) Scituate 8 May 1803, BETTY (BROWN) NORTHEY, widow of Captain Joseph Northey.

Benjamin's father died when he was about 12. The family having little means, it was necessary for Benjamin to start working early. From records left by his son Samuel, it appears that Benjamin was employed as lad-of-all work in the family of an Episcopal Minister, Reverend Ebenezer Thompson, Rector of St. Andrews Church in the south parish of Scituate and among other duties rang the bell in this church. At a later date he was bound out as an apprentice to a house carpenter in Boston. However, as he was an adventurous lad he soon relinquished his trade and became a sailor.

He was a soldier in the Revolution and at the age of 25 he enlisted as a Private at Cambridge and was at the taking of Dorchester Heights. He served first in Captain Otis' Company of "Royal Americans at Scituate" as private which marched at the Lexington Alarm of 19 April 1775; then he enlisted 10 May 1775 in Captain Samuel Stockbridge's Company, Colonel John Thomas' regiment. He also served the following year in Captain Nathaniel Winslow's Co., Colonel Simeon Cary's Regiment, his name appearing from 12 February to 1 November 1776. In December 1776, he was in Captain Francis Cushing's Co., Colonel John Cushing's Regiment which marched on an alarm to Bristol, Rhode Island. An official record shows that still later he was Sergeant in Captain William Barker's Co., Colonel Theophilus Cotton's Regiment being discharged 30 March 1781 after serving in Rhode Island. Mass. Soldiers and Sailors of the War of the Revolution [17:872-73] lists him in many muster rolls and returns.

Upon his first marriage the young couple set up housekeeping in a small humble house in "The Harbor" where Steinbeck's store was in recent years; their four children were born here. After his second marriage he moved with his children to the Northey home. The house and farm had been in the possession of the Northey family since 1675 at which time John Northey purchased it from Thomas Ingham (whose wife Mary was accused of bewitching Mehitable, daughter of Walter Woodworth). This house is still standing and is one of the historic points of interest in Scituate. It is the site of "The Old Oaken Bucket."

Children, by first wife, all born Scituate:

i. ABIGIAL, b. 31 Jan. 1780; m. March 1820/1 Detroit, Mich., William Russell.

ii. ANNA, b. 29 Oct. 1781; moved to Detroit in 1825; unm. in 1828.

He married 12 November 1772 ANNA BIBBER, born Harpswell, Maine, 25 January 1754 and died there 30 July 1830. Anna married (2) 18 July 1778 Daniel Webber.

He married Pembroke, Mass., 8 January 1781 RUTH STAPLES who died Bowdoinham 7 May 1837.

James moved from Harpswell to Bowdoinham about 1791. For the remainder of his life he lived on a farm about three miles from Bowdoinham Village.

From the Revolutionary records at the State House, Boston, Mass., James Woodworth enlisted from South Hanover, Mass., 19 April 1775 for eight months' service. He attained the rank of Captain under Captain Amos Turner; Colonel John Bailey.

In 1775 enlisted for 12 months under Captain Weed and Colonel John Bailey. Enlisted February 1777 for three years under Captain Judah Allen and Colonel John Bailey. Spent the winter of 1777-1778 at Valley Forge. June 1780 to 27 March 1781 under Captain Luther Bailey. In his declaration for pension May 1818, James states: "My name is Woodworth, but I am familiarly and almost universally called Woodward and thus my discharge is written." Silveste Page, Ruth Small, Emma Sparks, James Woodworth and Mary Sanford were pensioned as the only surviving children.

He was blind for quite a number of years in later life.

Children, all born Harpswell:

i. SILVESTE (f.), b. about 1784; d. 13 June 1863, bur. Bowdoinham Village Cem.; m. Bowdoinham 22 Feb. 1807 Captain John Page, b. 1785; d. 8 Aug. 1868.

"Jones" owned a piece of land at Freeport, Maine, as is shown by deeds from James Woodworth to William Haskell of Harpswell, Maine, 18 January 1781: "Isaac Jones Woodworth of Scituate, Plymouth Co., Yeoman, for 50 pounds paid by James Woodworth of North Yarmouth in the County of Cumberland, yeoman, sell 14 acres of land lying in Scituate, where my honored father, Joseph Woodworth, now lives, in three small pieces on both sides of the highway that leads from John Hatch's to Prince Otis', with the dwelling house and barn standing on the same.... said house and land is the same which I purchased of Joseph Burk. Signed, Isaac Jones Woodworth." It would seem from this Deed that Isaac Jones sold his house in Scituate, Mass., to James Woodworth, and that Jones Woodworth then went to Harpswell or to Prout's Gore and bought part of land which James Woodworth had bought of Timothy Bailey 19 August 1788. To this last Deed, Jones Woodworth was a witness, so that he must have been at Harpswell at this time. In 1791 he reserved such land as he had sold to James Woodworth. "Jones" married and had three daughters. SEE ADDENDUM.

83. WILLIAM 5 WOODWORTH, son of Benjamin 4 and Mercy (Benjamin 3,2, and Walter 1); born Lebanon, Conn., 17 February 1754 [VR Town of Lebanon, Vol. 1, p. 341]; born 28 February 1752 according to DAR records which seems more logical given age of Lydia. He died Bloomfield, New York, 13 February 1813.

To the Descendants of Timothy Ingraham: Information Respecting the Great Ingraham Estate in the Kingdom of Great Britain, by G. R. Gladding, Providence, R.I., 1859

"The Ingraham Estate, so called, was the property of my great great grandfather, Joseph Wilson of Yorkshire, England, who died about 1680 and left it by will to his only daughter Sarah, who married Edward Cowell of Yorkshire. After their marriage they moved to Boston, MA, and had only one child, Sarah (Cowell), who was born in Boston 2 July 1660 and who married Timothy Ingraham, son of William Ingraham of Boston. Timothy and wife removed to Bristol, R.I., in 1680.

They had 7 children born there, whose descendants are heirs of the estate. Three of the children died without issue; the descendants of the others now (1859) number about 100 persons...

The estate as left by will to Sarah Cowell, was entailed to the fourth generation, till which the lands could not be sold. The present claimants being of the fifth generation, that limitation has expired.

The estate, at the death of Joseph Wilson, was several miles in length and width (about 6 x 3), but was of little comparative value.....The estate, having a fine stream of water flowing through it, became a seat of manufacturing industry which has grown up into the present city of Leeds, which explains the present immense value of the estate.

Sarah (Wilson) Cowell, the legatee under the will, left that document to her daughter, Sarah (Cowell) Ingraham of Bristol, R.I.

The first effort made to recover the estate was by Jeremiah Ingraham, son of Timothy and Sarah (Cowell) Ingraham, a grandson of Edward and Sarah (Wilson) Ingraham, in 1803. He was an East India captain and sailed with his wife from New York, taking all the papers connected with the estate. His wife testifies that he put them in the hands of Mr. Erskine of London, an eminent lawyer, and sailed for Madras, where he died; his wife returning to this country.

Mr. Erskine (later Lord Erskine) was soon after made Lord Chancellor of England, which made it impossible for him to act any longer as a solicitor....Nothing further was done until about 1825, when the heirs learned that London papers had advertised for the heirs to the estate..... The first Lord Erskine was dead, and the papers that were placed in his hands by Capt. Solomon Ingraham had passed into the possession of his son, the late Lord Erskine, who was then a minister to Belgium, while the papers were locked up in London. (The agent for the heirs returned to America without getting access to them.)

No further effort was made until 1852, when the present agent (the author), in company with Columbus Smith, a lawyer, went to London and saw the late Lord Erskine. He was living at Brighton, 50 miles from London. He acknowledged finding the documents among his father's papers, affirmed they were safe in London, and that Messrs. Gladding and Smith could have them as soon as he could find time to look for them. Despite his daily promises to do so, they waited four months and he (then more than 80 years old) never found the time. He died in March 1857 (?), and all his papers passed into the hands of his eldest son, the present (1859) Lord Erskine....

Search of public records failed to disclose anything about the aforesaid will of Joseph Wilson; authorities stated it was not always necessary to record a will of real estate...." Genealogical Table of the Ingraham Family in the Wilson Line [Adapted from material in the book]:

He married Dec. 1793 SABRA DAVISON, born Horton 17 June 1771 and died 30 January 1848, daughter of Andrew J. and Eunice (Kimball) Davidson of Long Island [Eagles, p. 60].

Elihu inherited his lands from his father. Deeds show that Elihu bought up many of the Island lots until eventually he owned upwards of 130 acres of upland - over 1/2 of the total area of Long Island. He built a house, Site 21, which was slightly north and east of the present dwelling, Site 20.

He was assigned a mark for his cattle on 24

November 1785, being a square crop on the left ear and a slit in the same.

Elihu sold lands to Jonathan Hamilton in 1811.

A prosperous farmer, he also write deeds, surveyed, financed mortages, assessed property and was a Deacon in the Covenanter Church. He was an intensively occupied and active gentlemen, and even after retirement age made frequent trips about the province surveying, acting as arbitrator or carrying out church business. His diary for 1835-36 gives a glimpse of the man and his activities when aged 64. He was devoted to his church and was a Deacon at a time when Rev. Mr. Sommerville was pastor. Services were held once a month by Mr. Sommerville in Cornwallis and the remaining Sundays in the Covenanter Church in Grand Pre. Elihu helped with Communion, conducted services when Mr. Sommerville was away and made his house available for mid-week prayers. Church duties occupied most of his time and regardless of weather, alone or with the pastor, he visited members of the congregation, especially the sick and aged.....[Eagles, p. 39].

He maintained a variety of livestock-sheep, hogs, oxen, cattle and horses. Aside from regular farming duties, Elihu showed many talents of a successful pioneer as showed by entries in his diary: made hayfork handles, made a pair of shoes, sheared sheep, dressed and breaking flax, curried calf skin, repaired my wagon, chopped wood, making candles, engaged with my leather, put shoes on Mr. Sommerville's horse, caught muskrat, sowed turnips, hoed potatoes, etc..... [Eagles, p. 40].

As early as 17 April 1805, he was involved in surveying lands in the township, and the Court of General Sessions records the "laying out of a road from Little Island to Boot Island, across the marsh in Horton, by Sherman Denison and Elihu Woodworth - Surveyors of Highways, the said Elihu Woodworth being a Deputy Surveyor of Lines and Bounds." Elihu continued this profession even after his retirement, although to a limited extent since he was so involved in his church work.

As Elihu and Sabra neared retirement, they sold the farm to two sons, Benjamin and Samuel. In 1825, they received 60 acres in the North Tier, and later the lands in the South Tier were split between them, with Benjmain receiving the portion adjoining the Davison farm together with the homestead, while Samuel received the eastern half. Samuel married and built a house east of the homestead, sharing the use of the woodhouse, horse stable and barn. A road, commonly referred to as the Woodworth Road, divided the two properties, connecting the Island Road to the Minas Shore and running about 1/3 mile across the dyke before turning west to meet the Middle Dyke Road [Eagles, p. 41].

On 13 April 1874, the trustees of the Island School Section No. 75, Messrs R. I. Palmeter and Elihu Woodworth, purchased a parcel of land, 25 feet by 30, for one dollar, from Leander Palmeter for the building of a school.

Note: From History of Franklin and Grand Isle Counties, VT, edit. by Lewis Cass Aldrich, 1891, p. 542: Town of Fletcher:

"John Fullington of Deerfield, New Hampshire, began the first clearing in town on the river farm....in 1787 or 1788. He put up a shanty and returned to Deerfield, N.H., for his wife and four children. They had 1 horse and 1 cow to drive... .....Two men who had land in the S.E. part of Fairfax were with them. Within the limits of Johnson, they encamped for the night near the banks of the Lamoille River. Here Mr. Fullington found a patch of turnips and improvidently ate one raw, which produced a severe attack of bilious colic and caused his death in a few hours. He was buried the next day. Mrs. Fullington and the little ones proceeded down the river to the home provided for them, and here the widow became the mother of the first white child born in town, and named her Lamoille, from the river." This text makes it sound as if Lamoille was the child of John Fullington, but most other references say she was a Woodworth. Could she have been adopted by Woodworth?

He was unmarried. WAW's account of Daniel's death places him at Fort Griswold at the surrender. This is considered incorrect.

In the National Genealogical Society Quarterly, March 1981, Vol. 69, p. 14, Revolutionary War muster roll for Springfield, Mass., listed are: Woodworth, Daniel of Wilbraham, age 17, enlisted 1 April 1777 and Woodworth, Ezekiel of Wilbraham, age 18, enlisted 10 February 1777, sons of Peleg.

121. ASA 5 WOODWORTH, son of Peleg 4 and Mary (Ezekiel 3, Benjamin 2, Walter 1); born Coventry, Tolland Co., Conn., about 1762. May have married at Lebanon, Grafton Co., New Hampshire. In 1790 Census listed with wife; 2 sons under 16; and 2 daughters.

Listed in Captain Mills' Company, Revolutionary War, 20 February 1782.

Children, may not be complete list:

i. Son, b. after 1774.
ii. Son, b. after 1774.
iii. Daughter.
iv. Daughter.

122. JAMES 5 WOODWORTH, son of Peleg 4 and Mary (Ezekiel 3, Benjamin 2, Walter 1); born Coventry, Tolland Co., Conn., 8 July 1766 and died Painesville, Ohio, 2 November 1859. Buried with Eunice in Evergreen Cemetery, Painesville.

He married (1) 22 September 1788, LUCRETIA CATLIN of Hadley, Mass., born South Hadley 4 October 1771 and died 23 January 1831, daughter of Samuel Crow and Dorcas Eunice (Alvord) Catlin. He married (2) Painesville 23 May 1831, widow EUNICE (HAMBLETON) PEEBLES, born New Hampshire 26 July 1778 and died Painesville 16 May 1860. She married (1) 7 October 1796 Harvey Peebles, son of John and Elizabeth (Moor) Peebles; had at least one child born in 1803 [Peebles, p. 206, 207, 212].

James lived in Tolland until 8 years of age. His mother died 26 April 1770 when he was about 4 and he then lived 4 years with his grandfather Terryl. He was bound out to live with Jonathan Bliss of Wilbraham, Mass., and lived with him 8 years. At 16 years he went to learn the mason trade with Asa Ayres of Wilbraham. After his marriage to Lucretia Catlin, they lived in South Hadley on a 19-acre farm near the center of town until the year 1803.

Asa Ayres is listed in the 1790 Census at South Hadley; the only Asa Ayres listed in Mass. It is probable that while James was serving his apprenticeship, Asa moved from Wilbraham to South Hadley, only a few miles away, James going with him.

James is not listed in the 1790 Census, but his father-in-law, Samuel Catlin is. There is one extra male over 16 listed in the household. Could this be James Woodworth?

James is listed in South Hadley, Hampshire Co., Mass., in the 1800 Census, the family consisting of himself and wife and 8 children: 2 males under 10; 1 male 10-16; four females under 10; and one female 10-16.

Ensign of the 4th Company or train band in the 12th Regiment of the State of Connecticut.

On 3 February 1803, he moved to Bolton, Washington Co., New York, which is on the west side of Lake George. After the Revolution, men came to the wild wooded area; the majority settling on the hilltops overlooking the lake, the main artery of the area, and the balance on the narrow lake plain. Farming and lumbering was the main source of income [Brown, p. 126].

In the Bolton Census of 1810, James is listed with his wife and 10 children; 4 sons to 10; 1 son 10-16; one daughter to 10; 1 daughter 10-16; and 3 daughters 16-26.

James bought land in Bolton but the deed has not been found either in Washington Co. (the original county) or Warren Co. He disposed of this land in a deed recorded in the County Clerk's office at Lake George [Book A, p. 246]. On 1 June 1812, James Woodworth and Lucretia Woodworth his wife granted to Reuben Armstrong 57 acres of land in Bolton, part of the land patent to Lena Hitchcock and Philip, for a consideration of $1200. The deed was not acknowledged until 9 February 1815 and was recorded the next day.

The notes of Harvey Woodworth, state that his father James remained at Bolton until 5 January 1820. Obit of Harvey Woodworth in "Painesville Telegraph" 15 May 1884 says his father came to Unionville, Ashtabula Co., Ohio, in Jan. 1820. James is listed at Harpersfield, Ashtabula Co, in 1820. In the 1820 Census near the listing of James are the families of Ezekiel and Daniel Woodworth, probably James' brothers. James is listed again in the census for Harpersfield in 1830 and E. Woodworth is next to him. The family of James is given as: 2 males under 5; 3 males 20-30; 1 male 60-70 and 1 female 15-20; 1 female 20-30 and 1 female 50-60.

James moved to Painesville in April, 1839 to live with Harvey. James had a remarkable memory and was a fine mathematician. A surveyor by profession.

124. GERSHOM EVARTS 5 WOODWORTH, son of Gershom 4 and Rosanna (Caleb 3, Benjamin 2, Walter 1); born Tryingham, Berkshire Co., Mass., 26 February 1755 and died Aurelius, Cayuga Co., New York, 22 February 1830; farmer.

He married (1) JANE SHEPHERD. He married (2) PHEBE/PHOEBE TRAVER(S), born 1761 and died Aurelius 27 April 1848, reputed daughter of Nicholas and Sarah (Cook) Traver, and Granddaughter of Sebastian and Christina (Uhl) Traver and Great Granddaughter of John Nicholas Traver (Huguenot) who was born near Bingen on the Rhine. Regarding the parentage of Phebe Traver, Gershom's reputed second wife and of her sister Rebecca who married Caleb (#126), Gershom Evarts' brother, it is not certain that their father, Nicholas Traver, was the Nicholas originally of Rhinebeck, New York, and son of Sebastian Traver.

An attempt to find the birthplace and date of Phebe so far have been fruitless. G. Alan Royce of Erdenheim, Penn. in 1986, has done much research on the Traver family connection and presents the following information. Nicholas died in 1807 and is buried in the Old Traver Cemetery near Tyre, Seneca Co., New York, where Caleb Woodworth and his wife Rebecca (Traver) are also buried. Notes on Nicholas in the DSGR Magazine 22:79, "Records from the Old Traver Cemetery, Seneca Co., New York" say he was born in Germany, died 1807 (lived in Vermont). A number of other Woodworths are buried in this cemetery, as are some of Nicholas' children.

From Thomas Rogers, Pilgrim, and Some of His Descendants by E. S. Daniels and J. E. Sawatelle, 1960, p. 131: "Asa Smith, born Sandisfield, Mass., 16 September 1758, died Tyre, N.Y., 25 October 1841. He married in Vergennes, Ver., 13 February 1788 Margaret Traver, born Stone Arabia, NY, 9 September 1765 and died Tyre 11 July 1840. Child, Nancy Smith born 24 January 1794, Bristol, Ver. (Asa and Margaret are buried in Traver Cemetery; she is called a daughter of Nicholas).

From Yesteryears 15:58, p. 70, Nicholas Traver is named as one of the early settlers of Tyre, around 1798 or shortly thereafter. However, this may have been the above Nicholas' son, also named Nicholas, who was born at Half Moon, Albany Co., N.Y., 31 October 1769 and died at Tyre 20 January 1834, buried in Traver Cemetery.

One other clue: from The Kelloggs in the Old World and the New by Timothy Hopkins, 1903, p. 118: David Kellogg....m. Christina Traver (whose ancestors came from Hanover, Germany), born Cambridge, N.Y., 18 May 1775 and died 30 May 1856. Seven children born Starksboro, Ver.

From land transactions, Nicholas is placed in Washington Co., N.Y., and Addison Co., Ver., as well as above locations where his children were born. There is no evidence that he came from Dutchess Co. He may have been one of a group of Palatine Germans who settled in the Stone Arabia area - or one of the group that moved into Washington Co. about one or two generations after the emigrations in the early 1700's.

There is evidence that Gershom Evarts Woodworth was in Washington Co., in the 1790 Census. Res. Mayfield, Fulton Co.; Granville, Washington Co.; and Aurelius, Cayuga Co., N.Y. Settled at Aurelius in 1802. Lost an eye and arm in the Revolution. Served as Private and Sergeant, but no records available. In 1810 Census, Aurelius.

Kept the toll gate on the Pike at Aurelius Station. There has been considerable confusion concerning the children, but the listing below is believed the most probable:

Child perhaps by first wife:

352. i. WILLIAM, b. Mayfield May 1780 [not listed in all records and one record states he died young].

Children by second wife stated to have all been born North Granville, Washington Co., N.Y. according to a descendant. [note that Ira, John, and Sally all married children of Gideon and Zillah/Lillah (Merrill) Ellis]:

ii. ROSANNA, b. Nov. 1781; m. Samuel McGill.

353. iii. IRA, b. Sept./Oct. 1783.

354. iv. JOSIAH, b. Feb. 1785.

355. v. JOHN ROBBINS, b. Nov. 1790.

vi. PHOEBE MATILDA, b. about August 1792; d. Ithaca, Mich., 16 July 1875; m. Seneca Co., N.Y., about 1810/15 Elihu Ogden Halsted who died Cincinnati, Ohio, 15 Dec. 1876. Res. Junius and Waterloo, Seneca Co., N.Y.; perhaps Tyre until about 1831; moved to Chautaugua Co., N.Y. and about 1842 settled in Cincinnati.

vii. REBECCA, b. 4 March 1794; d. Jan. 1890; m. 1827 David Moore as 2nd w.
viii. AMASA, b. June 1796.
ix. SALLY SELINA, b. Granville 24 Feb. 1798; d. Eaton Co., Mich., 2 Sept. 1863; m. Aurelius, N.Y., 18 March 1821 Harvey L. Ellis, b. Seneca Co., N.Y., 26 May 1801; 11 ch.
x. AMANDA CYNTHIA, b. Aurelius 6 Jan. 1805; d. Joliet 1876; m. 2 Oct. 1825, Julius C. Strong who d. 1858.

125. WILLIAM GERSHOM 5 WOODWORTH, son of Gershom and Rosanna (Caleb 3, Benjamin 2, Walter 1); born Tyringham, Berkshire Co., Mass., 13 October 1758 and died Mayfield, Fulton Co., New York, 9 February 1839, buried Riceville Cemetery near Mayfield. Lawyer and Justice.

He married Cambridge, Washington Co., New York, 14 February 1782 SARAH THOMPSON, born Colerbine, Mass., 16 November 1760 and died Mayfield 1 July 1833, daughter of Andrew and Margaret (Maxwell) Thompson.

"William volunteered at Cambridge, Washington Co., N.Y., in June, 1777. He then went to Albany, Fort Edward and Fort Ann. He was discharged briefly in August, 1777 to go from White Creek, Washington Co., N.Y., to Tyringham, Berkshire Co. with his father's family for the purpose of getting them out of the way of the enemy. He rejoined under the command of Colonel Van Wort and went from Salem, Hebron and East Town. On 21 March 1778 he was taken prisoner by Indians, one Tory and three Frenchmen. They took him to Coughnenaga, Canada and then to Montreal. He escaped in April and returned to Cambridge, N.Y., 18 May 1778. He was robbed of everything including a rifle for which he had paid $30.00. It was very cold and he suffered "much." He went four days without food except for leeks and anything he could catch in the woods. In May or June, he went out from Cambridge under Lieutenant Gershom Woodworth. He was discharged 9 October 1778. In 1781, he volunteered again and served as a scout on several missions. He applied and received a pension December 1833 stating he was a resident of Mayfield, Montgomery Co., N.Y. Jeremiah Wood and Collins O'Dell were listed as able to testify to his service" [Material from Marsha Hoffman Rising, a Woodworth Family genealogist].

Supplementing the above, William served in the Revolution in 16th Albany Company under Captain McPhillip and Wells, Colonels Van Woert and Williams, New York line and was in the Battle of Saratoga [Pension #17207].

From Ottawa, Ontario, 1 April 1955, this statement was recieved regarding Canadian Land Records: "William and Gershom are found in the index to the lower Canadian land records but not in the Upper Canada land records....appear on a list of associate settlers submitted by Moses Cowan, leader from Cambridge, New York, on 10 May 1792, praying for a grant of the Twp. of Stoke on the east side of the River St. Francis in the County of Richmond, Province of Quebec (formed from the former county of Buckinghamshire). Another shows the Woodworth family as former residents of the State of New York. Finally, a list of the grantees of the Twp. of Stokes shows that William Woodworth, Sr. received lots 13 in Range 1; 18 in Range 2; 20 and 21 in Range 4; and 22 in Range 5, total 12,000 acres. Gershom also listed with total of 1,000 acres."

156. JABEZ 5 WOODWORTH, son of Isaac 4 and Elizabeth (Isaac 3,2, Walter 1); born Norwich, Conn., 4 May 1741, bp. 10 May 1741.

He married New London, New London Co., Conn., Congregational Church 8 November 1762 Widow MARTHA FOX, born New London and died Chelsea, Orange Co., Vermont, 7 February 1836 [church records].

Jabez appears to be the one listed in 1790 New London Census with 2 males under 16 and 3 females. Of his children only Elizabeth, Isaac and Douglas are on the Vital Records at Norwich but another record gives him a son, Jabez. When Douglas, brother of Jabez made his Will about 1805, he left bequests to Douglas, Isaac and Jabez, sons of Jabez. He also gave to Patty, Abigail, Wealthy and Lucy, evidently all Woodworths but relationship not definite. In 1827 Mrs. Martha Fox Woodworth was admitted to Chelsea, Vermont, Church by letter from Church at Bozrah, Conn.

Jabez served in the Revolutionary War from Vermont.

Children:

i. ELIZABETH, b. 31 Jan. 1764; bp. Bozrah Church 12 May 1765.

414. ii. DOUGLASS, b. Norwich 6 Dec. 1765.

157. DOUGLAS 5 WOODWORTH, son of Isaac 4 and Elizabeth (Isaac 3,2, Walter 1); Born Norwich, Conn., 29 June 1744 and died New London, Conn., 7 February 1805 [as reported in "Columbian Centinal"]. Willed his property to his widow, nephews and nieces as noted under Jabez (#156) Woodworth.

He married New London 11 September 1799 SIBEL/SYBIL HARRIS, widow of Colonel Joseph Harris.

Was Chief Mate, Brig. "Norwich Packet" 1772.

They had no children.

158. JASPER 5 WOODWORTH, son of Asa 4 and Sarah (Isaac 3,2, Walter 1); born Groton, Conn., 7 October 1740 and living Norwich, Conn., 1 April 1806.

In 1790 he appears to be in New London Co. with family of 3 males over 16, 1 under 16 and 2 females indicating that he married before 1774. Very little is known concerning this family but it is possible that his wife was POLLY LATHROP. The Lathrop Genealogy states Polly, daughter of Lebbeus Lathrop of Northrop, born 3 January 1749 married Jasper Woodworth as his 2nd wife and they were not known to have had children.

Among papers deposited at the Conn. Historical Society there are notes that Jasper m. a KATHERINE WINTHROP and had 8 children of whom William, Katherine, Caleb, Clarissa and Cynthia are named.

Victor Montes, a family genealogist, writes in 1985 that "according to WAW there was one Jasper Woodworth in the Norwich, Conn., area. I think (VM) there were more than one as Jasper was married four times. One is a Polly Lathrop, then there was a Clara____, and I found an Amanda Wright who married Jasper on 30 September 1809 at Columbia, Conn. [per VR of Columbia 1804-1852, pp. 20/21 at the Conn. State Library. Could this Jasper be a son or grandson of the Jasper who married Polly Lathrop?"

Connecticut Historical Collection, Vol. 2, p. 218, French and Indian War lists Jasper in Captain Stanton's Company from Groton in 1760.

The Connecticut Historical Bulletin April, 1949 shows he paid for 88 days of schooling for his children during the term beginning 13 December 1775. On 10 February 1776 he furnished cord wood for the school.

Children, incomplete and unproven:

i. CATHERINE, b. about 1770/1; d. Cranston, R.I., 8 April 1820; m. (1) Norwich 24 Oct. 1790 Mr. Bennett; m. (2) Sterling, Conn., Oliver Perkins; m. (3) Cranston 18 Jan. 1810 George Read, b. 1762; d. 1856, son of George & Elizabeth (Randall)

Note: From History of Windham Co., Connecticut by Ellen D. Larned, 2:290: "Oliver Woodworth, a small boy of 5 or 6 years old, a nephew of Reuben and Agatha Sharpe, living with them, was murdered by a 17 year old retarded boy, Caleb Adams, whom the Sharpes had also taken in, they being childless.." Oliver murdered in 1803. Perhaps connected with the family above.

159. ASA 5 WOODWORTH, son of Asa 4 and Sarah (Isaac 3,2, Walter 1); born Groton, Conn., 25 April 1744 and died Bozrah, Conn., 16 (or 18) March 1817. On grave stone marker in Bozrah, Conn., he is called "Esquire."

He married Bozrah 12 January 1768 SARAH FORD, born Norwich 22 December 1749 and died there 21 June 1816 [VR Bozrah, Conn., p. 23], daughter of James and Elizabeth Ford.

160. OLIVER 5 WOODWORTH, son of Asa 4 and Sarah (Isaac 3,2, Walter 1); born perhaps Groton, Conn., about 1754/6.

He married Preston 1st Church, 10 March 1791, ELIPHAL COOK of Preston, New London Co., Conn., born Norwich, Conn., 15 September 1752 and died 25 January 1842, daughter of Captain James Cook. At time of marriage Oliver was called "of Norwich."

He may be the Oliver who was Deacon in Greenville Church.

According to WAW, Oliver is not listed in Will of brother Caleb, and he appears nowhere as a son of Asa; however, in making his own Will, 8 October 1795, Tolland, Tolland Co., Conn., he mentions his wife Eliphal. On 25 November 1795, he made a codicil to the Will and mentions his eldest brother, Jasper.

He evidently had no children.

161. CHARLES 5 WOODWORTH, son of Asa 4 and Sarah (Isaac 3,2, Walter 1); born about 1757 (may be the Charles who was bp. 1st Church of Groton, New London Co., Conn., 12 January 1757). Died between 1825 and 1826, as his Will is dated 15 December 1825 and mentions his wife Joanna, daughter Polly Walker and sons Rhodolphus, Charles and Jedediah. The inventory was taken 25 March 1826.

He married 4 November 1779, JOANNA WOODWORTH, born 3 May 1749, daughter of Stephen (#21) and Allithear Woodworth. Estate of Joanna Woodworth was probated in 1827, when she is described as "of Stafford."

In 1790 Census, Charles is listed at Stafford with family of one male over 16, four under 16, and three daughters.

He was a soldier in the Revolution from Conn. in 1776. Resided Stafford, Tolland Co., Conn.

The Groton Avery Clan, p. 325 states "Charles Woodworth married Alithea, not Joanna."

He married SARAH [according to WAW] who joined the Franklin Church by profession 4 November 1821 and died Franklin 30 December 1841.

He may be the resident of New London Co. Census in 1790 with 2 males over 16, one under and 3 females.

He is probably the Reverend Amos Woodworth who resided in Windham Co., Conn. and was admitted a member of the Windham Co. Assoc. of Pastors on 18 May 1790, which included Franklin, Lisbon and Plainfield [Contributions to Eccl. History of Conn., p. 338].

Children, if any, not known.

163. SIMEON 5 WOODWORTH, son of Asa 4 and Sarah (Isaac 3,2, Walter 1); bp. Norwich Church (New London Co., Conn.) 9 September 1765 and died Mansfield, Tolland Co., Conn., 30 May 1829 [Obit notice in "Mansfield Observer"].

He married (1) 18 October 1789 [VR Franklin, Conn., Marriage Records] MARY HART LORD (k/a POLLY), born Franklin, New London Co., Conn.,

2 July 1766 and died there 21 November 1801, daughter of Benjamin Lord. Simeon married (2) name unknown by whom he had son Chester. She died before 1812. He married (3) Mansfield 26 August 1813 PHOEBE TRACY who died there 1 July 1814. He married (4) Mansfield 1 January 1817 Widow BETHIA HINCKLEY of Lebanon, New London Co., Conn., born about 1781.

Simeon was admitted to the Franklin Church by letter 22 September 1793 from 1st Church of Norwich.

168. ABSALOM 5 WOODWORTH, son of Daniel 4 and Sarah (Daniel 3, Isaac 2, Walter 1); born Norwich, Connecticut, 13 August 1741, baptized, 18 October 1741 and died New York City. His estate mentions no family. Letters of Administration were granted on the estate, 12 November 1785, which named his brother Robert.

He married CATHERINE SPRONG and had son Robert [First Settlers of Albany].

From History of the County of Albany, N.Y. from 1609 to 1886 by Howell & Tenny, 1886, p. 413: Records of the Committee of Safety & Correspondence [preserved in State Library]:

May 8, 1776: John Boyd confessed to selling Bohea tea for 7/6 per pound, contrary to resolution of the Continental Congress. That others did it, was his excuse. Resolved: That the said John Boyd has violated the Resolution, and ought to be considered as an enemy to the American cause, and it is recommended that all persons break off all intercourse with said Boyd. Absalom Woodworth was also convicted of the same offense and punished in the same manner (apparently "profiteering").

442. i. DANIEL, infant on 20 Dec. 1798.
443. i. CORNELIUS, inf. on 20 Dec. 1798.
iii. ROBERT, b. Albany, 22 Nov. 1783/4.

169. ROBERT 5 WOODWORTH, son of Daniel 4 and Sarah (Daniel 3, Isaac 2, Walter 1); born Norwich, Conn., 13 June 1743; bp. Bozrah Church 10 July 1743 and died Troy, Rensselaer Co., New York, 8 February 1809.

He married 1766 RACHEL FITCH, born Salisbury, Conn., 7 July 1736 and died there, 1815 [DAR #85543], daughter of James and Abial (Metcalf) Fitch and a descendant of Gov. William Bradford. Moved from Lebanon to Salisbury. Her father Captain James Fitch (Captain in Revolutionary War) d. 15 November 1760 and his widow moved to Greenbush, New York [N.Y. Rec. 1933, p. 35].

Robert moved to Rensselaer Manor, now Greenbush, New York, before 1769, but does not appear on the 1790 Census there.

Robert was appointed Captain of Albany Company of Militia in 1778. Was State Senator 1792/4 and Judge in Court of Common Pleas.

The only children known are listed below, but there may have been others and possibly one was a Robert Woodworth who lived in Albany Co. about 1815:

444. i. JOHN ANTHONY, b. Schodack, Rensselaer Co., N.Y., 12 Nov. 1768.

445. ii. DANIEL FITCH, b. Albany 1772.

iii. ROBERT (perhaps).

iv. HENRY, bp. Rensselaer Co., Troy 1st Presbyterian Church 8 Sept. 1802 [Church of Latter Day Saint Record]

170. BENJAMIN 5 WOODWORTH, son of Benjamin 4 (Daniel 3, Isaac 2, Walter 1); born perhaps Norwich, Conn.

He married Bozrah, Conn., 26 January 1775 SYBIL FOX. Aside from his father, he appears to be the only Benjamin in the vicinity at this time.

On 10 May 1780 [Norwich Deeds 26:203] Benjamin and wife Sybil of Norwich conveyed to her father, William Fox of Norwich, land received through her mother Hannah Fox, through Hannah's father Ebenezer Lyon. Nothing further is known about this couple.

171. DARIUS 5 WOODWORTH, son of Benjamin 4 (Daniel 3, Isaac 2, Walter 1); born perhaps Norwich, Conn., 4 January 1755 [Pension Claim].

In 1790 resided in New London Co., Conn., with family 1-1-2. He served in the Conn. line in 1777/8 from Norwich and received a bounty.

He settled in Georgia, Camden Co., New York.

From Deed Book I, Vol. 3, p. 193 - I/40: George S. Woodworth to Darius Woodworth, deed dated 6 October 1812, conveying grantor's moiety or half of Lot in Jefferson, Camden Co., deeded them by Timothy Hopkins, 10 April 1810, Grantor's wife Catherine waives dower right. Also: Vol. 3, p.

200, Deed Book I: I/299: George S. Woodworth to Darius Woodworth, both of Camden Co. Deed dated 15 Feb. 1814, for Town Lot 6 in Jefferson. Grantor's wife Catherine waives dower.

From the Georgia Genealogical Magazine Vol. 1, p. 84, - 6 Nov. 1815, Darius Woodworth appointed administrator of Daniel Mann. Elizabeth, daughter of Samuel [#128] Woodworth married a Daniel Mann. Could they be the same?

Child, at least one:

i. GEORGE S., who married CATHERINE.

172. ROGER 5 WOODWORTH, son of Benjamin 4 (Daniel 3, Isaac 2, Walter 1); born perhaps Norwich, Conn., about 1756 and died Fletcher, Vermont, 21 October 1834 [Ver. VR].

The only reference to Roger's wife is when son John was born and she was called "LYDIA" (perhaps DOWNER). Son John is the only known recorded birth to Roger.

Roger served in the Conn. line, enlisting in Lebanon, Conn., in 1777 for 3 years and received pension at Fletcher, Vermont from 1818 to 1834 [Pension #41373].

Mrs. Josephine Short, a great great granddaughter of Roger stated she had a record from Washington, D.C., indicating that Roger and his brother Roswell and their father Benjamin were in the same company in the Revolution.

Another family member stated that Harmony Woodworth was a daughter of Roger and not of Roswell as given in the Wells, Vermont, history. They also stated that Harmony had a sister Betsey who married a brother of Joshua Hulet.

Roger joined Columbia Church in 1782, same year as Timothy Woodworth.

In 1790, Roger was at Hartford, Windsor Co., Vermont, with one male over 16; two males under 16 and four females including wife.

In 1800 he was at Windsor, Windsor Co., Vermont, and in 1810 he was at Fletcher, Franklin Co., Vermont. In 1820 his name was given as "Woolworth." In 1830 he was still at Fletcher.

There was a Roger Woodworth of Nantucket, Mass., who married at Fletcher 28 September 1827 CORNELIA A. THOMPSON of Brattleboro, Vermont. This perhaps could have been a son of this Roger.

Children with much uncertainty:

i. Son, b. prior to 1790.

ii. Son, b. prior to 1790.

iii. HARMONY, b. about 1787; d. 1 Dec. 1861; m. perhaps 5 March 1807, Joshua Hulett, b. about 1785; d. 26 May 1859. Ch., (Surname) HULETT: 1. Alzina, d.y. 13 Aug. 1811; 2. Louisa d.y. 21 June 1832; 3. Daniel, b. 5 March 1812; d. 4 March 1872.

iv. Perhaps Elizabeth who m. Daniel Hulett.

v. Dau., b. prior to 1790.

446. vi. JOHN, b. Hartland, 11 Jan. 1792.

vii. Son, perhaps Roger.

viii. Dau., b. 1790-1800.

ix. Dau., b. 1790-1800.

173. ROSWELL 5 WOODWORTH, son of Benjamin 4 ((Daniel 3, Isaac 3, Walter 1); born perhaps Norwich, Conn., about 1758 and died Wells, Rutland Co., Vermont, 16 January 1812, buried Wells Town Cemetery.

He married Wells 5 October 1784 PHEBE PARKER [Ver. VR]. However, Lyme, N.H., records show he married (2) there 5 October 1784 PHEBE PARKER born 1764 and died 1852. The History of Wells, Vermont and Francis: Descendants of Robert Francis of Wethersfield, Conn., compiled by Charles E. Francis, 1906, p. 149, 150 states Roswell married Lucinda Auranda Francis, daughter of Nathan and Abigail (Thompson) Francis of Wallingford, Conn.

According to Ver. VR, Roswell could not have married Lucinda Auranda Francis as she was born after 1780. Also it states Roswell went West around 1816. This evidently is in error since Roswell died at Wells in 1812; however, his son Roswell Jr. went to Arkansas.

In 1790 Census Roswell was at Wells with family 1-2-3 and in 1800 was also there with family 3-2-0-0-1 and 3-2-1-1-0.

Records show Roswell was a soldier from Wells or Pawlet in 1776, and his widow Phebe drew a pension [#18369].

Children, all born Wells [perhaps some belonging to brother Roger's family]:

447. i. JOSIAH, b. 16 August 1786.
ii. DOWNER,, b. about 1788; d. perhaps Penfield, Calhoun Co., Mich.
448. iii. ROSWELL, b. about 1793 [1850 Census, Union, Conway Co., Arkansas].
iv. HOSEA, b. 23 August 1794 [not to be confused with Hosea (#243) Woodworth.
v. SALLY.
vi. SOPHRONIA, m. Wells, 27 Nov. 1814 James Francis, b. Wells, Ver., 1806, son of James and his first wife Sybil (Butts) Francis. Moved to Java, N.Y. [Francis, p. 113].
vii. LOUISA.
viii. PATTY.
ix. SAMUEL.
449. xi. SOCRATES, b. 11 Oct. 1809.

174. THOMAS 5 WOODWORTH, son of Benjamin 4. (Daniel 3, Isaac 2, Walter 1); born perhaps Norwich, Conn., by 1760.

He is perhaps the Thomas who was Ensign of a military company in Herkimer Co., New York, and was wounded 6 September 1781 at Fort Griswold.

The fact that Jewett, brother to Thomas, was in Herkimer Co., in 1801 lends some additional evidence that this is the right "Thomas."

175. JOSEPH 5 WOODWORTH (twin), son of Benjamin 4 (Daniel 3, Isaac 2. Walter 1); born perhaps Norwich, Conn. 24 April 1763; bp. Bozrah 8 May 1763. He died East Montpelier, Vermont, in 1817; buried Green Mountain Cemetery there. His Will was probated 28 April 1817 and mentions wife Elizabeth, sons Lyman and John and daughters Polly, Experience and Nancy.

He married ELIZABETH.

In 1800 Census Joseph is listed at Montpelier with 1 male under 10, 2 from 10-16 and 1 over 26 but less than 45. However, he may have been in this locality as early as 1790 with his brother Ziba, as in 1790 Census Ziba is listed with 2 males over 16 in family and these may have been himself and Joseph. Joseph's family may have followed later from Conn.

He was town representative at Montpelier in 1803 and 1810 and Selectman in 1795, 1805, and 1814 [Hemenway 4:272]. He evidently was in Colonel Latimer's Regiment, Captain Skinner's Co., drafted 25 August and discharged 8 November 1777. Was at Saratoga in General Poor's Continental Brigade, Arnold's Division in battles 19 September and 9 October 1777.

Some sources list a son Joseph, born 1784-1790, Onion River, Vermont (later known as Winooski River), but this is in some question as he was not listed in Will. However could have died before that time.

Children, perhaps b. Conn., as not recorded in Montpelier:

i. JOHN E., b. 1784-1790.
ii. POLLY, b. 1784-1790.
iii. EXPERIENCE, b. 1784-1790.
450. iv. LYMAN, b. 1784.

v. NANCY, b. 1790-1800; m. 12 Oct. 1834 Benjamin F. Nealey.

176. ZIBA 5 WOODWORTH (twin), son of Benjamin 4 (Daniel 3, Isaac 2, Walter 1); born perhaps Norwich, [Bozrah according to Montpelier VR] Conn., 24 April 1763; bp. Bozrah Church 8 May 1763 and died Montpelier, Vermont, 27 November 1826 [Ver. VR and Pension Rec.].

He perhaps married (1) Bozrah 6 December 1786 LUCRETIA OSGOOD. She became ill and died on the eve of his final departure for Vermont. He married (2) LUCY PALMER, born about 1766 (from Canaan, New Hampshire) and died Montpelier 1842 [VR Montpelier], buried Maplewood Cemetery.

He served in Conn. during the Revolution and was wounded in the thigh at the Battle of Groton Heights 6 September 1781 [Allyn, pp. 219, 269, 270, 289]. According to the story, he was thrown into a cart among the dead and being conscious he prayed for strength to make some sign. He made a vow that if God would spare his life he would devote it to His service. With that he groaned aloud, was heard and taken to a hospital.

He bought lands in Vermont. Listed as farmer, Baptist clergyman [VR Montpelier]. He was one of the 27 founders of the Town of Montpelier. He attended the first town meeting in 1791 and was elected first Town Clerk. In History of Montpelier, Vermont by Thompson, Ziba is stated to have been a nephew of Colonel Ledyard. In 1806, Ziba was ordained in the Baptist Church.

Children, all born Montpelier:

i. ZIBA, b. 27 April 1792; d. 13 June 1803 [Montpelier VR]; bur. Green Mount Cemetery.

In 1796 he was awarded a pension 4 September 1794 in the sum of $45 per year.

On 4 December 1797, records of a town meeting [Vol. 9, p. 299], it was voted to sell Dyer about 3/4 acre of the highway where his stage stood provided they shall on examination judge it convenient for the public and individuals.

During the years between 1803 and 1815, Dyer purchased several tracts of land which included a tavern. His home in 1819 was south of the site of this tavern and south of the Old Enfield bridge. He married about 1805 RACHEL DICKS of Detroit, Michigan.

Benjamin was an architect and carpenter who removed to Detroit in 1807 to build the Governor Hull House. The Governor Hull House, the first brick building in Michigan, stood on the south side of Jefferson Avenue, near Randolph Street. It was a square mansion of brick, two stories high, with a hall in the center. In 1819 he built the Bank of Michigan, a one-story office about 30' square.

Benjamin evidently kept the old Steamboat Hotel, ran a ferry to Windsor, carried on a grist mill at Rochester and ran the only line of stages in Michigan between Detroit and Mount Clemens; the route being on the river bank and across the Grand Marais.

Benjamin served in Captain Sibley's Regiment in the War of 1812. Was a Captain of an artillery company.

He lost a large amount of his property by fire and removed to St. Clair, upstream from Detroit, to live with his only surviving daughter. He was unfortunate with his family as eight of the twelve children died young.

He married 23 Sept. 1810 LYDIA REEDER, born 22 February 1792 and died San Francisco 21 October 1860, daughter of William and Julia (Smith) Reeder.

Samuel learned the printer's trade at Boston. In 1809 moved to New York City to establish a weekly newspaper with George F. Morris and afterward with N. P. Willis. They began publication of the "New York Mirror." Samuel wrote operettas ("The Forest Rose" being his most successful) and lyrics, of which "The Old Oaken Bucket" is his best. Some years ago his numerous poetic stanzas were published by Scribner and Company. The elder son collected these poems after Samuel's death and had them published, but the volume became mostly a library and historical collection.

From The Genealogist Post, Vol. 1, No. 6, pp. 20,21: "Law and Order - The Vigilantes (in Calif.)" The official declaration upon which the "committee of Vigilantes" was formed in San Francisco in 1851 has attached to the resolution the names of nearly all the "vigilantes" including S. E. "Samuel resided on the eastern half of his father's farm, sharing the woodhouse, stables and barn with his brother, Benjamin. He was married a short time to Miss Williams according to Elihu's diary entry on June 4, 1835, namely: 'Sam married Miss Williams; none of the family at the wedding. June 6, Sam returned with his wife.' For the remainder of the diary no further mention is made of Sam's wife. In addition to the main farm, Sam owned several lots of land in the western end of the Island, one of which was sold in March, 1885 for the sum of 40 dollars to Asa W. Davison" [Eagles, p. 43].

In his Will of 1882, Samuel left the use of the house to wife Mary Ann, and divided the lands equally between his sister, Sarah Davison, nephew Elihu Woodworth, John A. Woodworth and Harriett A. Woodworth. These lands were subsequently sold in 1883 by the executors of the estate to $1,810 to Joseph K. Allen. It is assumed they had no children as none were mentioned in Will.

Benjamin helped work on the farm with Samuel and his father, going to sea in the slack seasons. In 1825, Elihu divided the farm and Benjamin received his share, 60 acres in the North Tier. Sometime later he received the West portion of his father's farm, lying in the South Tier. He spent more time at sea, became a Captain and was shipwrecked off Grand Manan, but was rescued.

Perhaps moved to Cumberland Co. in early 1852 where he engaged in farming for the remainder of his life.

"An account book of H. C. Woodworth retained in the family of Mary Woodworth Huber provides the only facts he recorded on which to base a narrative of his movements. Beginning entries in 1837 records the accounts of the customers of Heman Woodworth, keeper of a general store in Licking Co., Ohio. The entries show purchases of food, country store items of clothing, and everyday items of household use: coal, oil, axe, saw, etc. and the periodic payments against those accounts. The last entries of this sort (which seem to indicate final settlement in most instances) were in 1851.

The cover of the book bears the identification of ownership and a partially identifiable location as Libery Township, Licking Co. Inside is an entry which identifies Heman Woodworth as constable of Plain Township without a date or further elaboration. Still another entry as follows: 'Know all men by these presents that I, H. C. Woodworth of Franklin Co., Plain Township for and in consideration of the sum of eight dollars to me in hand paid.' Other entries refer to 'the great flood in Granville July 1st, 1834; the hail storm in Utica, Ohio, on May 26th 1839 as well as the election of Wilson Shannon as Governor in 1838" [from Retired Brig. Gen. Hal Cushman Pattison in 1985].

This account book also contains a record of family births and deaths upon which this family record is based.

He married Quebec, Canada, SUSAN SHAYS, born perhaps Mass. and died after 1814 perhaps New York State, daughter of Captain Daniel Shays.

It has been reported that William was associated with Captain Shays; however, if this is the same Captain Daniel Shays who was the leader of Shays' Rebellion in Mass. in 1786/7, William would have been only 6 or 7 years old at the time and could not have been involved. The Encyclopedia Britanica (1963) says "Captain Shays, leader of "Shays'Rebellion in 1786/7 escaped to Vermont and on receipt of a pardon in 1788 went to Western New York and died at Sparta, New York, 29 September 1825."

Some genealogists also give William another son, Johnson, born Centreville, Mich., 21 October 1815. Elmer Stiles Smail in his Descendants of Daniel Shays states that this Johnson may have been actually "Jonathan," a son of Susan Shays and her second husband Jonathan Weston whom she married at Sparta, New York. He states that data on the children came from letters written by William Gershom Woodworth (1797-1890) of Centreville, Mich., a cousin of the William who married Susan Shays. He also claims that William and Susan lived at Lyons, Wayne Co., New York, and he was killed by a falling tree; date not learned [Smail, p. 6].

Much difficulty has been encountered in compiling a history of this family. No specific listing of children has been found, yet it is believed there was one son who married and moved West. One record found gives an "Elijah" at North Hudson, New York, who died there at date above; however, since Schroon Lake is in Essex Co., New York, this may be a different Elijah. Also, at North Hudson, ELIZABETH JOHNSON, daughter of Israel and Elizabeth Johnson and wife of Elijah Woodworth died 6 February 1813; no age given.

Also, a "John Woodworth" was on the Assessor's Roll, Crown Point, Essex Co., New York in 1835 (perhaps another possible son).

ADDENDUM

Benjamin Woodward appeared before the Court and gave oath that the above-written is a true inventory of his late father, Walter Woodworth, deceased, so far as he knows, and when more comes to his knowledge, he is to bring it to this inventory by virture of the oath in Court, March 2d, 1685/6.

(Attest) Nath'l Clarke,

Barbara Cruchon from Seattle, Wash., has done outstanding research on the earlier Woodworth generations. Some of her material is incorporated in the body of the book and some of it used in the Addendum. She has supplied invaluable information for future generations.

2. THOMAS 2 WOODWORTH:

The first record we find of Thomas Woodworth is dated 1 June 1664, when Gowin White of Scituate sold to John Otis and Thomas Woodward, both of Scituate, "a certaine tract of upland and meddow land...in Scituate aforsaid. [which] was given by the Freeman of Scittuate aforsaid unto William Gilson deceased....," containing about 60 acres, "bounded on the south side with the river beginning att a great rocke...." The tract apparently lay to the west of Brushy Hill, as nearly as can be determined from the description in the deed. William Gilson was uncle to John Damon, Deborah's father, and had brought him to New England as a young lad.

Perhaps it was on this land that Thomas lived and kept his trader's shop, said to have been located about a quarter mile south of Stockbridge's Mill.

The next year, 1665, the Town named Thomas Woodworth to bait and tend the two wolf traps required of every town by Plymouth Court. He was paid 10 shillings per year, as well as a fee for the wolves killed.

In 1673, he and eleven other Scituate men (including his brother Joseph and Charles Stockbridge) were complained of before Plymouth Court by Isaac Chittenden for assembling together on May 14th last and breaking down a "great parcel of fence" Chittenden had put up to mark the boundaries of his land. "The said persons being summoned to appear att this Court to answare the said [complaint], and theire defence being fully heard, it appeered evidently to the Court that theire said acte was done in a roietus way in regard of theire number, yett conceiveing that theire intent was to comit a trespass only..doe therfore onely amerce them to pay a five shillings apeece to the use of the collonie."

In this same year (1673) however, he was described as an "allowed and approved inhabitant" by a joint committee of the Court and town, and was assigned a portion of the common lands.

When in May 1676 Scituate was attacked by the Indians during King Philip's War, the few able-bodied men remaining in the town were able to hold the stockade at Stockbridge's Mill. The Indians burned houses, killed cattle and destroyed the newly-planted fields before they were repulsed. Thomas Woodworth's home was one of those destroyed; he may have been away with the troops that day. His loss was 40 lbs.

In November of 1676, Deborah (Damon) Woodworth received a portion of the estate of her unmarried brother John Damon Jr., who may have been killed in King Philip's War. She also, in 1696, received part of the estate of another unmarried brother, Daniel Damon.

According to church records, "Deborah Woodworth, wife of Thomas Woodworth joyn'd" the First Church of Scituate on 3 June 1711.

By the Will of his father, who died in 1686, Thomas received acreage of both upland and marsh-land in Scituate, as well as one-third of his father's land at Seconet (Little Compton), and one-half of the land still to be purchased there. It is said that this land on Swamp Road in Little Compton was held by his family for many years, and was located "next to the Southworth place." Two of Thomas' children, Hezekiah and Catherine, settled in Little Compton.

In 1690 Thomas Woodworth was appointed Clerk of the Market, which office he held until 1711. In 1712, he was made Scaler of Weights and Measures, perhaps another name for the same office.

Thomas made his will 13 Feb. 1718/19, and it was proved in court 17 March following. In it he named his wife Deborah, son Hezekiah's children (Hezekiah had died over a year before), sons John and Ebenezer, and daughters Deborah Pincen, Catherine Davenport, Hannah Jackson, Jerusha Randall and Mary Vinal. Thomas had lived to a good ripe age, being around 78 years at his death.

Some histories claim Thomas bought lands in Little Compton in 1674 (should this be 1694?), but his name does not appear on a list of first settlers in Little Compton on that date. (The list does include his brothers Benjamin, Joseph and Isaac. Since Isaac would only have been about 14 years old at the time, this published list appears to be imperfect.)

Deane's History of Scituate quotes a town vote in Jan. 1680, to build a meetinghouse at the piece of land where Thomas Woodworth's house stood, near the junction of the several roads a few rods south of Stockbridge's Mill. It appears, however, that the two new meetinghouses built around this time, for both the First and Second Societies were located upon the sites of their original churches, and none was built south of Stockbridge's Mill.

3. JOSEPH 2 WOODWORTH:

This second son of Walter Woodworth lived all his life in the town of Scituate. Records describe him as a shop-keeper there.

On 23 March 1672, he and Anthony Dodson witnessed a pre-nuptial agreement between William Tubbs Sr. and Dorothy Soane, widow of William Soane (who was half-brother of Joseph's wife Sarah).

Joseph was summoned to appear before Plymouth Court in July of 1673, when Isaac Chittenden complained that 12 men, Joseph and his brother Thomas among them, "assembled together of the 14th day of May last, and did, contrary to law and in a roietus way, throw down a fence or great parcel of fence of the abovesaid Chettendens, by him sett up on land layed out to him by such as were by the authoritie of this govment thereunto impowered." The court listened to their story, and determined that no harm was meant, "theire intent was to comit a trespas onely," and fined each five shillings.

In March 1676 he appeared in Court again, this time on behalf of his sister Elizabeth, who had had a child out of wedlock the year before, fathered by Robert Stetson Jr. Joseph posted 20 pounds to assure her appearance at the next court in June. The Court set a maintenance schedule for the child, and by July it was agreed between Joseph, representing his sister, and Cornet Robert Stetson, on behalf of his son Robert, that the Court's verdict was just.

Joseph is said to have purchased lands in Seconet, and is included on a list of first proprietors of Little Compton dated 1674.

He served on several juries, among them a jury convened in March 1677 to look into the death of "one Robinson" who was killed when a tree fell on him. Joseph's brother Benjamin served on this jury also.

He father died in 1686, and bequeathed him upland and marshland in Scituate, 25 acres at Seconet (Little Compton), one-half of the yet-unpurchased lands at Seconet and 10 pounds.

Joseph's name is included on a list of freeman dated 1689, in the Plymouth records.

According to the will of Sarah's father, John Stockbridge, who died in Boston 1657, she was to receive 10 pounds" when 21 or at her marriage." By a deed of 21 Jan. 1688/9 the "Children and Successors" of John Stockbridge divided his estate at Scituate, among them Joseph and Sarah Woodworth. This deed was sworn to in July 1693, and finally acknowledged in March 1707 by the heirs, including Joseph and Sarah.

Joseph and Sarah, his wife, are listed in 1707 by Rev. Nathaniel Pitcher, as members of the First (North) Church of Scituate.

He made his Will 3 Dec. 1712, and it was allowed 13 June 1718. His beloved wife Sarah was given use of the easterly end of his dwelling house, and five pounds yearly. Oldest son Joseph received the estate at Little Compton, where he was then living, and the other son, Benjamin, received the estate in Scituate. The five daughters Margaret, Sarah, Elizabeth, Abigail and Ruth, each received 50 pounds and division of the household goods. Son Benjamin was executor.

The inventory of his estate included Joseph's purse, apparel and books. There were two feather beds, a flock bed, two table, six chairs and three chests. Kitchen-ware included two brass kettles, a brass skillet, pewter dishes and earthenware, and an iron pot. There was a quantity of tubs, barrels and hogsheads, as well as two spinning wheels, cards, sheep wool, hatchel, a loom, and a warming pan. Livestock consisted of two oxen, two cows and other cattle, horses, sheep, and pigs, and there were "Husbandry tools of all sorts."

Joseph was about 73 years old at his death.

5. ISAAC 2 WOODWORTH:

We first hear of Isaac when, in July 1679, he is fined one pound by Plymouth Court "for playing att cards 2 severall times."

He was a carpenter, and was included as a debtor in settlement of the estate of Richard Dwelley of Scituate in 1692, perhaps for carpenter work.

His father, in his will written 26 Nov. 1685, left Isaac one-third of the lands at Seconet (Little Compton). He probably moved there with his young family around 1692, where they lived for a least five years, perhaps longer. Isaac is reported to have purchased land in Norwich, Conn., about 1697, but apparently did not settle there until after 28 April 1701, when a Plymouth Colony deed regarding sale of some land belonging to his late father-in-law, calls him "Isaac Woodward of Little Compton."

He was admitted freeman at Norwich in 1705, and built the second meeting-house there. A deed is recorded in 1707 at Lebanon, Conn., from Benjamin Woodworth to his "brother Isaac."

Isaac's Will, dated 5 Jan. 1713/14, proved 13 April 1714, mentions his wife Lydia and nine children, who are not named. His son Moses was executor.

In some sources, the mother of Isaac's wife, Lydia Standlake, is given as "Lydie (-------) Brestow." Richard Standlake's second wife was Lydia (------) Barstow, widow of Jeremiah Barstow, who was killed in King Philip's War in 1676. (She had a son, also Jeremiah Barstow, who was taken into captivity shortly after). Lydia had apparently married Richard Standlake by 1677, according to the Barstow estate records, and of course could not be mother of Richard's daughter Lydia, who was b. in 1664.

United Congregational Church records, Little

Compton (as reported in Arnold's Vital Records of RI), show David and Isaac, sons "of Isaac." as both admitted and baptized 3 Nov. 1704. This seems to be a misreading or miscopying of the record.

His daughter Experience and Nancy each received ten acres, a cow and some sheep, and son, John twenty-five acres.

In December 1794, Joseph bought the western half of Lot 11, first division, of Jacob Davis and 25 acres in Lot 6, paying him 50 pounds. 352. WILLIAM 6 WOODWORTH, son of Gershom 5 and Jane (Gershom 4, Caleb 3, Benjamin 2, Walter 1). The following is from NEHGS, October 1986 issue of the Register, pp. 291-311, "The Daniel Shays Family" and concerns Daniel Shays' daughter Susan, who is supposed to have married William [#352] Woodworth:

"Daniel Shays was born about 1747 in the vicinity of Hopkinton, Mass., and died at Sparta, Livingston Co., N.Y., 25 or 29 Sept. 1825, age 78 years. He was buried in an unmarked grave north of Scottsburg, Livingston Co., N.Y. He was married twice: (1) to Abigail Gilbert and (2) at Sparta, 1 April 1815, to widow Rhoda (Coller) Havens. One of his six known children was daughter Susan (Suky), who married before 1824, Jonathan Weston, a migratory school teacher. She was married before Daniel made his will 23 Jan. 1824 (never probated and on file in the Livingston Co. Courthouse), in which she (as Suky Weston) was made executrix and sole heir. Susan was living in late 1825, but no more is known. A Jonathan Weston was living in Otsego Co., N.Y., in 1830 and 1840. They had one known child, Jonathan (Jr.), b. 1812, living at Middlefield, Otsego Co., N.Y., 1850 Census."

William Woodworth is not mentioned, so it would be logical to deduct that Susan Shay was never married to him. (GAR)

There is a William Woodworth showing up in the Quebec area and then removing to New Germany, Nova Scotia, who is the progenitor of a large Canadian following. The possibility exists that these Williams may be one in the same. Further research should be done. (JWB)
